

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. AS in late Editions, this contains a List of the past and present House of Commons; and also shews the Changes made since the General Election of 1859.

For this Edition, that portion of the Work relating to the Proceedings at Elections, the Qualification and Registration of Electors, has been carefully revised, and so amplified, as to render it an efficient and useful guide in these matters.

The unsuccessful Candidates are invariably marked in Italics.

Respecting the List of Changes in all the great Offices, the Rule laid down and pursued in this Book, is, to give, first, the Person or Persons who held this or that Department at the close of the last Century, and then the Changes, or Alterations, in the Administration, which have been since made, with their Dates.

No pains have been spared to render this Work as accurate as possible; but Notice of any Errors will at all times be thankfully received by the Publisher, together with any hints for improvement.

[The late Parliament was dissolved April 23, 1859; the Writs were returnable on the 31st May, 1859; and it was summoned to meet on the same day for the First Session of the Sixteenth Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.]

---

N.B.—By Act 5 and 6 William IV., cap. 36, the time of taking the Poll in Boroughs, at all contested Elections in England and Wales, is limited to One Day.

By Act 5 and 6 William IV., cap. 78, § 5, the time of taking the Poll at all Borough Elections, in Scotland, is limited to One Day.

By Act 10 and 11 Victoriæ, cap. 81, the time of taking the Poll at all Borough Elections, in Ireland, is limited to One Day.

By Act 16 and 17 Victoriæ, cap. 15, the time of taking the Poll at all County Elections, in England and Wales, is limited to One Day.

By Act 16 and 17 Victoriæ, cap. 28, the time of taking the Poll at all County Elections in Scotland (except Orkney and Shetland), is limited to One Day.

By Act 16 and 17 Victoriæ, cap. 68, § 3, all Elections in England to take place within Six Days after receiving the Writ, giving Three Days' clear Notice.

By Act 6 and 7 Victoriæ, cap. 18, s. 36, Electors resident in one part of the County, and claiming to vote for property in another, may vote near their place of residence, on making a claim at the Revision Court, according to directions, p. 178.

PARLIAMENTARY ELECTORS.—By the Act 11 and 12 Victoriæ, cap. 90, (1848,) it is declared that “after the 1st of January next no person shall be required, in order to be on the list of voters for members of Parliament, to have paid any poor-rates or assessed taxes, except such as shall have become payable from him previously to the 5th of January, in the same year; and that no person shall be entitled to be on any such list of voters unless the poor-rates and assessed taxes payable from him previously to the 5th of January shall be paid on or before the 20th July next following.”

From an attentive consideration of the above statement, which is drawn up with as much accuracy as possible, from the Rolls and Journals of both Houses of Parliament, the following facts may be deduced:—

In the first place it appears, that, since the year 1509 (when it is generally supposed that the duration of Parliaments was extended beyond one year), only four Parliaments have existed beyond seven years, and that only ten more have had a sexennial duration.

In the second place, it is sufficiently evident, that, of the rest, only eight Parliaments have lasted above five years, only six Parliaments above four, and three above three years.

Thirdly, of the remaining number, only eleven existed above two years, and no less than thirty-seven for a shorter period.

Lastly, it is certain, that, one Parliament with another, the duration of each, since the reign of Henry VII., does not exceed the space of two years and about nine months, even including the long Parliament in the reign of King Charles I., and the still longer one which his son retained in existence for the enormous period of about seventeen years.

OFFICERS OF STATE.

THE LORD STEWARD'S DEPARTMENT.

The estate of the Queen's household is entirely committed to the Lord Steward, to be ruled and governed by his discretion; and all his commands in court are to be obeyed; his authority reaches over all the officers and servants of the Queen's house, except those of the Queen's chamber, stable, and chapel. Under the Lord Steward, in the compting-house, are the treasurer of the household, comptroller, cofferer, master of the household, clerks of the green cloth, &c. It is called the compting-house, because all the accounts and expenses of the Queen's household are daily taken and kept in it.

THE SECRETARIES OF STATE.

[Until the reign of Henry VIII. there was only one Secretary of State; and until the reign of Elizabeth, the Secretaries were never of the Privy Council. From that time to the present, there have been two Secretaries of State, and sometimes three; and thus a council has seldom been held without the presence of at least one of them. From the death of Queen Anne to the Rebellion of 1745, there was a third Secretary for Scotland; and from 1768, to the loss of America, in 1782, there was one for the Colonies. The departments of the two Secretaries were, previous to 1782, divided into Northern and Southern, but are now divided into one foreign, the other domestic. With the Home Secretary, all grants, pardons, and regulations in civil matters of every kind, are made out and executed. To the Foreign Secretary belong all despatches to and from other courts, and all business appertaining to the same. They have the custody of the privy signet, because the Queen's private letters are sealed with it. There are four Clerks of the Signet, who make out grants, patents, &c. which have the sign manual, to which the Signet being added, it is a warrant to the Privy Seal, as the Privy Seal is a warrant to the Great Seal. The Paper Office belongs to the Secretaries of State, where all papers, letters, memorials, negotiations, &c., are deposited and preserved.]

THE LORD CHANCELLOR

Keeps the Great Seal, not to judge according to the common law, as other courts do, but to dispense with such parts as seem in some cases to oppress the subject; and to judge according to equity, conscience, and reason. Wherefore he is said to have two powers; one absolute, the other ordinary; the meaning of which is, he must observe the form of proceeding in other courts; yet, in his absolute power, he is not limited by the written law, but in conscience and equity. He may issue writs of habeas corpus at all times. He has power to collate to all ecclesiastical benefices in the Queen's gift, rated under 20l. per annum in the Queen's Books. His oath:—To do justice to all persons, poor and rich; the Queen truly to counsel, and to keep the Queen's counsel, and not to suffer the rights of the Crown to be any ways diminished.

[The Lord Chancellor and Lord Keeper are the same in power and precedence. Both are appointed by the Queen's delivery of the Great Seal; they differ only in this:—the Lord Chancellor has also letters patent, the Lord Keeper has none.]

THE ADMIRALTY.

[The power of the Lord High Admiral hath, since the reign of Queen Anne, been executed by commissioners. The statute of Charles II. ascertains his authority in these words:—"That the Lord High Admiral for the time being shall have full power and authority to grant commissions to inferior vice-admirals or commanders-in-chief of any squadrons of ships: to call and assemble courts martial, consisting of commanders and captains; and no courts martial, where pain of death shall be inflicted, shall consist of less than five captains at least; the Admiral's lieutenant to be, as to this purpose, esteemed as a captain; and in no case wherein sentence of death shall pass (by the articles for regulating the government of Her Majesty's ships of war, or any of them), except mutiny, there shall be execution of such sentence without leave of the Lord High Admiral, if the offence be committed in narrow seas. But in case any of the offences aforesaid be committed in any voyage beyond the narrow seas, then execution shall be done by order of the commander-in-chief." He appoints coroners to view dead bodies found on the coasts, and judges in the High Court of Admiralty. To him belong all fines and forfeitures of all transgressions at sea, and at the sea shore; and in ports, from the first bridge on rivers, to the sea; goods of pirates, waifs, wrecks, &c.]

penalties mentioned in that behalf in "The Corrupt Practices Prevention Act, 1854."

And take notice, That all persons who are guilty of treating or undue influence at the said election will, on conviction of such offence, be liable to the penalties mentioned in that behalf in "The Corrupt Practices Prevention Act, 1854."

No. 2.—Notice of Election in Boroughs.

City or borough of                      day of
In pursuance of a writ received by me                      for electing a burgess or burghesses [as the case may be], to serve in Parliament for the city or borough [as the case may be], I do hereby give notice, That I shall proceed to election accordingly on the                      day of at                      o'clock in                      , when and where all persons concerned are to give their attendance.

And take notice, That all persons who are guilty of bribery at the said election will, on conviction of such offence, be liable to the penalties mentioned in that behalf in "The Corrupt Practices Prevention Act, 1854."

And take notice, That all persons who are guilty of treating or undue influence at the said election will, on conviction of such offence, be liable to the penalties mentioned in that behalf in "The Corrupt Practices Prevention Act, 1854."

Freedom of Election and Removal of Military.

The Clerk of the Crown in Chancery, or other officer making out any writ for the election of a Member or Members of Parliament, is required, with all convenient speed after making out the said writ, to give notice thereof to the Secretary of War, who shall thereupon give the necessary orders that on the day of nomination and of taking the poll, no soldier—within two miles of any city, borough, town, or place where such nomination or election shall be declared or poll taken—shall be allowed to go out of the barracks or quarters in which he is stationed. 10th & 11th Victoria, cap. 21.

The following resolutions are entered on the Journals of the House:—

"It is a high infringement of the liberties and privileges of the Commons, for any Lord of Parliament, or any Lord-Lieutenant of any county, to concern themselves in the election of members of Parliament."

"It is highly criminal in any minister or servant under the Crown, directly or indirectly, to use the powers of office in the election of representatives to serve in Parliament." Resolution 17; Journal 507.

Delivery of Register to the Sheriff in Counties, and to the Returning Officer in Boroughs.

The printed book or books, prepared by the Clerk of the Peace and Town Clerk respectively, are, on or before the last day of November in the then current year, to be signed and delivered to the Sheriff of the County, or, in Cities and Boroughs, to the Returning Officer, to be safely kept by him and his successors in office; and "the said printed book or books, so signed as aforesaid by the Clerk of the Peace or Town Clerk respectively, and given into the custody of the Sheriff of the County, or the Returning Officer of any City or Borough, shall be the register of persons entitled to vote at any election of a Member or Members to serve in Parliament, which shall take place between the last day of November, in the year wherein such register shall have been made, and the first day of December in the succeeding year." 6th Victoriae, cap. 18, ss. 48 and 49.

Any alteration or correction of the register required to be made by any order of the Court of Common Pleas in Registration Appeal Cases, is to be made by the sheriff or returning officer in the register in his custody, and he is to sign his name against every such alteration or correction. 6 Vic. cap. 18, s. 87.

PROCEEDINGS AT ELECTION.

Nomination and Place of Election.

The day appointed by the returning officer for proceeding to the election is termed the "DAY OF NOMINATION." The place where the nomination or election is required to be held, is as follows:—

In Counties, the special county court is to be held at "the most public and usual place of election, where the same has most usually been for forty years last past." 7th & 8th William III., cap. 25, s. 3. The place of election for counties divided, is appointed for each division by the Reform Act, 2nd William IV., cap. 45; and the Boundary Act, 2nd William IV., cap. 64.

In Cities and Boroughs, the usual place is at the Guildhall, Townhall, Market-place, or Cross. A few boroughs have special Acts, regulating the place of election. No election is to be holden in any church, chapel, or place of public worship. 2nd William IV., cap. 45, s. 68.

The proceedings of the nomination are commenced by the returning officer causing proclamation for silence to be made, reading the writ, and taking the oath prescribed by 2nd George II., cap. 24, s. 3. The electors are then called upon to nominate fit and proper persons to be returned, to represent them in Parliament.

The several candidates having been nominated, and having addressed the electors, the returning officer proceeds to determine the election. If only so many candidates are nominated as there are Members to be returned, the return is made forthwith; if more are nominated, the election is determined "by the view," or "by the poll."

Election by the View.

The determination is either by voices or show of hands, or collecting the friends of the respective candidates into separate bodies, or in such other mode as has been customary upon such occasions; the almost universal way now, however, is by the "show of hands," upon which the returning officer declares the names of the candidates upon whom the choice of the majority of the persons present has fallen; and, if a poll is not legally demanded, he forthwith makes a return of the persons so chosen.

Election by the Poll.

If the election is not determined by the view, but a poll demanded, it is taken according to the provisions of the Reform Act and other statutes, and the election properly commences therewith. Notice is forthwith given of the times and places, when and where, the poll will be taken.

In Counties, the poll is to be taken on the next day but two after the nomination, unless such day be a Sunday, and then on the Monday following. 2nd William IV., cap. 45, s. 62.

In Boroughs, the polling is to "commence at eight of the clock in the forenoon of the day next following the day fixed for the election." 5th & 6th William IV., cap. 36, s. 2.

Polling Places, Booths, and Deputy Returning Officers.

COUNTIES.—2nd William IV., cap. 45 and cap. 64. Counties in England and Wales, and their respective ridings, are divided into convenient districts for polling, and in each district a convenient place appointed for taking the poll.

Additional polling places may be appointed, under the provisions of the 6th and 7th William IV., cap. 102, s. 112, and 16th and 17th Victoria, cap. 68, ss. 7 & 8.

Act 2nd William IV., cap. 45, s. 64. At every contested election for any county, the sheriff, under-sheriff, or sheriff's deputy, if required by or on behalf of any candidate on the day fixed for the election, or if it shall appear to him expedient, to cause to be erected a reasonable number of booths for taking the poll at the principal place of election, and also at each of the polling places, and cause to be affixed, on the most conspicuous part of each of such booths, the names of the several parishes, townships, and places for which such booth is allotted; and no person to be admitted to vote in respect of any property situate in any parish, &c., except at the booth so allotted; and if no booth shall be so allotted, then at any of the booths for the same district: but in case any parish, &c. shall not be included in any of the districts to be appointed by the Boundary Act, the votes in respect of property situate in any parish, &c. so omitted, to be taken at the principal place of election for the county.

Note.—By Act 6 and 7 Victoria, cap. 18, voters resident out of the county or division, or resident in one part of the county and claiming to vote for property in another, may now vote at the most convenient polling place to them, or near to their place of residence, by previously claiming, before the Revising Barrister, according to the form No. 7 or 8, in the Schedule A, of registration forms.

As many polling booths are to be provided at each polling place as will allow one for every 450 electors, who may lawfully vote at such polling place. 6th and 7th William IV., cap. 102, s. 3.

CITIES AND BOROUGH.—Act 2nd William IV., cap. 45, s. 68. At every contested election for any city or borough in England, except the borough of Monmouth, the returning officer, if required by or on the behalf of any candidate, on the day fixed for the election, or if it shall appear to him expedient to cause to be erected different polling-booths for different parishes, districts, or parts of such city or borough which may be situated either in one place or in several places, and to be so divided and allotted into compartments as to the returning officer shall seem most convenient, so that no greater number than six hundred be required to poll at any one compartment; and the returning officer to appoint a clerk to take the poll at each compartment, and cause to be affixed on the most conspicuous part of each of the said booths, the names of the several parishes, &c. for which such booth is allotted; and no person to be admitted to vote except at the booth allotted for the parish, &c. wherein the property may be situate in respect of which he claims to vote, or wherein his place of abode, as described in the register, may be; but in case no booth be provided for any particular parish, &c. the votes of persons voting in respect of property situate in any parish, &c. so omitted, or having their place of abode therein, and the votes of freemen residing out of the limits of the city or borough, may be taken at any of the said booths; and public notice of the situation, division, and allotment of the different booths to be given two days before the commencement of the poll, by the returning officer; and, in case the booths be situated in different places the returning officer may appoint a deputy to preside at each place.

Not more than 300 electors are to be allotted to poll in each booth or compartment. 5th and 6th William IV., cap. 36, s. 3. On the requisition of a candidate, or his proposer or seconder, upon paying the expenses incident thereto, the booths or compartments are to be so arranged, that not more than 100 shall be allotted to poll in each; s. 4.

UNIVERSITIES.—Act 16th and 17th Victoria, cap. 68, s. 5, enacts, “at every such Election the Vice Chancellor shall have power to appoint any Number of Polling Places not exceeding Three, in addition to the House of Convocation or Senate House, and to direct at which of such Polling Places the Members of Convocation and of the Senate according to their Colleges shall vote, and also to appoint any Number of Pro Vice Chancellors, any one of whom may receive the Votes and decide upon all Questions during the absence of such Vice Chancellor; and such Vice Chancellor shall have Power to appoint any Number of Poll Clerks and other Officers, by One or more of whom the Votes shall be entered in such Number of Poll Books as shall be judged necessary by such Vice Chancellor.”

Poll not to be taken at Public Houses.

Act 16th and 17th Victoria, cap. 68, s. 6, enacts, “no Poll at any Election for Members of Parliament in England and Wales shall be taken at any Inn, Hotel, Tavern, Public House, or other Premises licensed for the Sale of Beer, Wine, or Spirits, or in any Booth, Hall, Room, or other Place directly communicating therewith, unless by Consent of all the Candidates expressed in Writing.”

Certified Copies of the Register of Voters.

The Sheriff, or other Returning Officer, is, before the day fixed for the election, to cause to be made, for the use of each booth or other polling place at such election, a true copy of the register of voters, and, under his hand, certify every such copy to be true. 2nd William IV., cap. 45, s. 72.

Agents to detect Personation.

Any candidate, previous to the time fixed for taking the poll at an election, may nominate and appoint, in writing, any agent or agents, to attend at each of the booths, for the purpose of detecting personation. If at the time any person tenders his votes, or after he has voted, such agent shall declare to the Returning Officer that he verily believes, and undertakes to prove, that the person so voting is not, in fact, the person in whose name he assumes to vote, the Returning Officer is required, immediately after such person has voted, to order such person into custody. The person so charged is to be taken before two justices, when bail may be taken, and subsequently he may be committed for trial. If the charge is unfounded, the justices may order compensation, or an action may be brought against the candidate. 6th Victoriæ, cap. 18, s. 86.

Duration of the Poll.

COUNTIES.—Act 16th Victoriæ, cap. 15, s. 1. That so much of the Act passed in the second year of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, chapter forty-five, as authorises the continuance of the polling at every such contested election as aforesaid for two days, and the duties of the sheriff's deputy and poll clerks at such poll during those days, and fixes the commencement and limits the hours of polling on such days, and prevents the commencement of such polling on a Saturday, shall be and the same is hereby repealed.

2. At every contested Election of a knight or knights to serve in any Parliament after the first day of October one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three for any county, or for any riding, parts, or division of a county, the polling shall continue for ONE DAY ONLY, and the poll shall commence at eight o'clock in the morning, and be kept open until five in the afternoon of such day, and the poll clerks to be employed at the principal place of election and other places shall, at the final close of the day's poll, enclose and seal their several books, and shall publicly deliver them, so enclosed and sealed, to the Sheriff, under-Sheriff, or Sheriff's deputy presiding at such poll, and every such deputy who shall have received any such poll books shall forthwith deliver or transmit the same, so enclosed and sealed, to the Sheriff or his under-Sheriff, who shall receive and keep all the poll books unopened until the re-assembling of the Court on the day next but one after the close of the poll, unless such next day but one shall be Sunday, and then until the Monday following, when he shall openly break the seals thereon, and cast up the number of votes as they appear on the said several books, and shall openly declare the state of the poll, and shall make proclamation of the Member or Members chosen not later than two o'clock in the afternoon of the said day, any statute to the contrary notwithstanding.

3. The provisions concerning the adjournment of the poll in cases of riot or open violence, and other the provisions of section seventy of the said Act of the second year of King William the Fourth, shall be and remain applicable to every such contested election as aforesaid, as if the said section were re-enacted in this Act, the words "the day of polling" being substituted therein for the words "one of the two days of polling."

CITIES AND BOROUGHES.—Act 5th and 6th William IV., cap. 86. The time of taking the poll in boroughs, at all contested elections in England and Wales, is limited to ONE day.

Act 5th and 6th William IV., cap. 78, s. 5. The time of taking the poll at all borough elections in Scotland, is limited to One day.

Act 10th and 11th Victoriae, cap. 81. The time of taking the poll at all borough elections in Ireland, is limited to One day.

UNIVERSITIES.—Act 16th and 17th Victoriae, cap. 68, s. 4, enacts, “at any Election of a Member or Members to serve in Parliament for either of the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge the Polling shall not continue for more than FIVE Days at the most, Sunday, Christmas Day, Good Friday, and Ascension Day being excluded.”

By the new Statute 24 and 25 Victoriae, cap. 58, 1st August, 1861, Electors of Burgesses for the Universities of Oxford, Cambridge, and Dublin, may vote by means of Voting Papers.

The important provisions of this experimental Statute will be found in extenso at p. 167.

Taking the Poll.

The Sheriff in counties is empowered to appoint poll clerks, to take the poll, by s. 65, 2nd William IV., cap. 45, and 7th and 8th William III., cap. 25, s. 3; in cities and boroughs the returning officer is to appoint a clerk, to take the poll at each compartment. S. 68, 2nd William IV., cap. 45.

A cheque book for every poll book for each candidate is to be allowed, to be kept by the respective inspectors at every place where the poll shall be taken. 18th George II., cap. 18, s. 9.

The Sheriff, or in his absence the under-Sheriff, shall appoint for each candidate such one person as shall be nominated to him by each candidate, to be inspector of every clerk who shall be appointed for taking the poll. 7th and 8th William III., cap. 25, s. 3.

In cities, being counties of themselves, the Sheriff shall allow a cheque book, for each candidate, for every poll book, 19 George II., cap. 20. In boroughs, having 600 electors, each compartment of a booth is to be provided with accommodation for an agent and cheque clerk for each of the candidates. 9th George IV., cap. 59.

The poll is taken upon the register, formed under the Registration of Voters Act, 6th Victoriae, cap. 18, and certified by the Returning Officer, 2nd William IV., cap. 45, s. 72. The register is final, as to the right of any person whose name is entered therein, except in special cases; and the two following questions only can legally be put to any elector at the time of voting:—

1. Are you the same person whose Name appears as A. B. on the Register of Voters now in force for the county of [or for the Riding, Parts, or Division, &c., or, for the City, &c., as the case may be] ?
2. Have you already voted, either here or elsewhere, at this Election, for the County of [or for the Riding, Parts, or Division of the County of or for the City or Borough of as the case may be] ?

If demanded, the following oath may be put:—

You do swear [or being a Quaker, or Moravian, do affirm], that you are the same person whose name appears as A. B. on the Register of Voters now in force for the County of

[or for the Riding, Parts, or Division of the County or or for the City or Borough of as the case may be], and that you have not before voted, either here or elsewhere, at the present Election for the said County, [or for the said Riding, Parts, or Division of the said County, or for the said City or Borough, as the case may be.]

So help you God.

(6th Victoriæ, cap. 18, s. 81.)

No other oath is to be put to an elector; the bribery oath is repealed by the "Corrupt Practices Prevention Act, 1854," (schedule).

It is not lawful for any person to vote at any County Election, whose name may be upon the register, where the qualification annexed to his name shall have appeared annexed thereto in the preceding register, and such person, on the last day of July in the year in which the register was made, shall have ceased to have such qualification. 6th Victoriæ, cap. 18, s. 79.

Nor is it lawful for a person to vote at any city or borough election unless he shall, ever since the thirty-first day of July, in the year in which his name was inserted in the register, have resided, and, at the time of voting, continue to reside, within such city or borough, or within the distance thereof required (seven miles). S. 79.

Persons not on the register may tender their votes, to raise the question of their right, if they were rejected by express decisions of the Revising Barrister; the votes so given will be entered as "tendered" only. 6th Victoriæ, cap. 18, s. 98.

Though in general practice the votes of the electors are given for candidates who were previously nominated, yet the choice of the voters is not restricted thereto, but they may vote for whomsoever they please whether nominated or not, and whoever may be found to have the majority of legal votes recorded in his favour must be returned, in obedience to the command in the writ.

In case of riot, the returning officer may adjourn the proceedings until interruption ceases. 5th and 6th William IV., cap. 36, s. 8.

Declaration of the Poll.

In Counties, immediately upon the close of the poll, the books are sealed up, transmitted, by the deputy returning officer at each polling place to the Sheriff, who, on the next day but one, openly breaks the seals, casts up the number of votes given for each candidate, openly declares the state of the poll, and makes proclamation of the Member or Members chosen. 2nd William IV., cap. 45, s. 65.

In Cities and Boroughs, the presiding officer may declare the result of the poll immediately after the polling; or he is required to keep the poll books sealed up until the following day, and then to proceed in the same way as provided above for counties. 2nd William IV., cap. 45, s. 68.

Transmission and Custody of Poll Books.

After having declared the state of the poll, and made declaration of the Members chosen, the Sheriff and other returning officers are required forthwith to enclose and seal up the several poll books, and to tender the same to each of the candidates, to be sealed by them respectively. As soon as possible after such proclamation, the poll books, so sealed, are to be delivered to the Clerk of the Crown by the returning officer or his deputy, or transmitted to the Crown Office by post, under the special regulations set forth in s. 93, 6th Victoria, cap. 18.

The Clerk of the Crown is to keep and preserve the several poll books, and to deliver office copies, on payment of a reasonable charge for writing the same. S. 95. Ib.

Return to the Writ.

IN COUNTIES.—Act 7th Henry IV., cap. 15. The names of the persons chosen shall be written in an indenture, under the seals of those by whom they are chosen, and tacked to the writ, which shall be deemed the sheriff's return to such writ.

Now, in practice, only a dozen or so of the electors sign the indenture, which, tacked to the writ as directed, is transmitted to the Clerk of the Crown in Chancery.

IN CITIES, BOROUGHs, and UNIVERSITIES, by s. 1, 16th and 17th Victoria, cap. 68, the returning officers, after the election, "in due course of law are to certify the same, together with the writ, according to the directions thereof;" and, accordingly, separate returns are made to the Clerk of the Crown, after the manner in counties.

Act 7th and 8th William III., cap. 7, s. 5. The clerk of the crown is to enter every return and amendment in a book to be kept for that purpose. All persons shall have access to the book, which, or a copy thereof, may be given in evidence. Such clerk not entering returns in six days after receipt, or making any alterations, or omitting to perform his duty, shall forfeit 500*l.* and lose his office.

Act 10th and 11th William III. cap. 7. Sheriffs not making returns shall forfeit 500*l.*

Act 11th and 12th Victoria, cap. 98, s. 103. That if any Sheriff or other returning officer shall wilfully delay, neglect, or refuse duly to return any person who ought to be returned, such person may, in case it had been determined by a Select Committee that such person was entitled to be returned, sue the Sheriff or other returning officer in any of Her Majesty's Courts at Westminster, and shall recover double the damages he has sustained by reason thereof.

Act 7th and 8th William III., cap. 7, s. 4. All contracts made to procure false returns shall be void, and the parties shall be subject to a penalty of 300*l.*; one-third to the Queen, another third to the poor, and one-third to the informer.

Amending Returns.

Returns were formerly amended by the returning officers; but, by a Resolution, April 20, 1690 (10th), Journal 377, they can only be amended by the House; for which purpose, when necessary, the clerk of the crown attends with his book, and amends it in the House, by erasing the names, or, in case of a double return, taking the void one off the file, and letting the other remain.

Act 7th and 8th William II., cap. 7, s. 5. Clerk of the Crown to enter in a book every alteration and amendment made in return.

PERSONS INELIGIBLE TO BE MEMBERS.

INFANTS.—No person, under twenty one years of age, is capable of being elected; and if any such minor shall presume to sit or vote in Parliament, he shall incur such penalties and forfeitures as if he had presumed to sit and vote without being chosen or returned. 7th and 8th William III., cap. 25.

ALIENS, by the law of Parliament, are incapable of being Members, and are excluded by a vote of the House.

Act 12th and 13th William III., cap. 2. No person born out of England, Scotland, or Ireland, or the dominions thereunto belonging, is capable of being a Member of either House. This does not apply to persons born of English, Scotch, or Irish parents. Aliens naturalized are ineligible. 7th and 8th Victoria, cap. 66.

PEERS, English and Scotch; also Irish Representative Peers.

JUDGES of the Superior Courts; County Court Judges. 10th and 11th Victoria, cap. 102, s. 18.

SHERIFFS, Mayors, and Bailiffs of Boroughs, for their respective jurisdictions, as being returning officers.

RECORDERS for boroughs where they have jurisdiction. 5th and 6th William IV., cap. 76.

REVISING BARRISTERS, for eighteen months after revision of the lists for any county, city, or borough for which they were appointed. 6th Victoria, cap. 18, s. 28.

CLERGY, Priests, and Deacons; Ministers of the Scotch Church, 41 George III., cap. 63; Persons in Holy Orders of the Church of Rome, 10 George IV., cap. 7, s. 9.

TRAITORS, and felons; and outlaws in criminal prosecutions, but not in civil suits.

IDIOTS and Lunatics.

BANKRUPTS.—Act 52nd George III., cap. 144. Members declared bankrupts under a commission are, during twelve months, rendered incapable of sitting and voting, unless within such period the commission be superseded, and creditors paid in full; or, in case of disputed debts, bonds given with two securities, to be approved of by the commissioners, for the payment of such sums as shall be recovered in law or equity, with such costs as shall be given for the same; and if the above-recited conditions are not fulfilled within twelve calendar months, the Speaker shall issue his writ for the election of another member.

EXCISE AND CUSTOMS.—Act 11th and 12th William III., cap. 2, s. 15, 152. No member of Parliament shall be a commissioner or farmer of the excise on beer, ale, or other liquors, or a commissioner of appeals, or comptroller, or auditor of the duty of excise; and such person, if elected, is declared incapable of sitting in the House of Commons.

The same in Ireland. 41st George III., cap. 52, s. 4.

Act 12th and 13th William III., cap. 10, ss. 89, 90. No member to be a commissioner or farmer of the customs; and persons executing such offices shall be incapable of sitting.

Also collectors of excise duties. 6th William and Mary, cap. 20.

Act 15th George II., cap. 22, s. 1. No commissioners of the Revenue in Ireland, or of the Navy or Victualling Office, or any deputies or clerks in any of the said offices, or in any of the following offices, viz. the Lord High Treasurer, or Commissioners of the Treasury, Auditors, Tellers, or Chancellor of the Exchequer, Commissioners of the Admiralty, Paymasters of the Army or Navy, Principal Secretaries of State, or Commissioners of Salt, Stamps, Appeals, Wine Licences, Hackney Coaches, Hawkers, and Pedlars; persons holding any office, civil or military, in the island of Minorca, or in Gibraltar, except officers holding commissions in any regiment there only, shall be capable of being elected, or sitting or voting as members of any Parliament.

This Act exempts the Treasurer and Comptroller of the Navy, the Secretaries of the Treasury, Secretary to the Chancellor of the Exchequer, Secretaries to the Admiralty, Under-Secretary to any of the Principal Secretaries of State, or the Deputy Paymaster of the Army, from the operations of this Act.

NEW OFFICES of Profit under the Crown.—Act 6th Anne, cap. 7, s. 25. Persons holding any new office or place of profit whatsoever under the Crown, created since the year 1705, shall be incapable of sitting. But Members accepting any old office of profit, whilst members, their election to be void: such persons, however, may be re-elected.

Persons disabled, if returned as members, their election to be void, and to be liable to a penalty of 500*l.* Ib.

PENSIONERS OF THE CROWN.—Act 1st George I., cap. 56, s. 2. No person having a pension from the Crown shall be capable of being elected a member of the House of Commons, under penalty of forfeiting 20*l.* for every day's sitting.

CONTRACTORS.—Act 22nd George III., cap. 45, ss. 1, 2. All persons holding contracts for the public service are declared incapable of being elected or sitting, and any member accepting a contract, his seat shall be void.

CANDIDATES declared guilty of BRIBERY, treating, or undue influence, by himself or his agents, by any Election Committee, are incapable of being elected or sitting in Parliament for such county, city, or borough during the Parliament then in existence. 17th and 18th Victoria, cap. 102, s. 36.

A person who is elected to serve in the House of Commons by the people, may, by the law and custom of Parliament, be disabled, and declared incapable to sit as a member; as where a person has been guilty of any crime which renders him infamous and the like.

Members on double returns for the same place are incapable of sitting till the returns are determined by a Committee; and there is a resolution of the House to this effect, made at the commencement of every session; but they enjoy all the privileges of members of Parliament.

Members who have taken their seats are ineligible for any other place, until they have vacated their former seats; but persons elected for one place may, before they take their seats, be returned for any other place; in which case, by an order of the House, they are to make their election by that day three weeks, for which of the places they will serve, provided there be no question upon the return from that place.

Abolition of the requirement of a Property Qualification.

No property qualification is now required of Members of Parliament. The Act of the ninth year of the reign of Queen Anne, and the several subsequent statutes, which required the possession of certain property qualifications by all candidates for seats in Parliament, are repealed by the 21st and 22nd Victoria, cap. 26.

Notice to Electors of Ineligibility of Candidates.

If the disqualification or ineligibility of candidates be within the knowledge of the electors, or they be previously made fully acquainted therewith, their votes, if given for such ineligible candidates, will be "thrown away." Voters polling for a candidate after due notice of his being ineligible, are to be considered as not voting at all, and, on petition, the next legal candidate on the poll would be declared duly elected. The notice to the electors should be in writing, or printed, signed by a candidate, or two or more electors, and every publicity given thereto.

RETURNING OFFICER'S EXPENSES.

A candidate is not legally liable for any other than his proper equal share of the following official expenses, unless by himself or his appointed agents he has authorised other expenses or charges to be incurred by the returning officer:—

1. The expense of erecting the polling booths; such expense in counties not to exceed the sum of 40*l.* in respect of any one principal place of election, or any one polling place, and in cities and boroughs the sum of 25*l.* in respect of any parish, district, or part thereof.
2. The payment of "two guineas by the day" to each deputy returning officer.
3. The payment of "one guinea by the day" to each poll clerk.

The items are to be discharged at the "joint and equal expense of the several candidates."

The booths may be erected "by contract with the candidates, if they shall think fit;" and "the Sheriff or other returning officer may, if he shall think fit, instead of erecting such booth or booths as aforesaid, procure or hire the use of any houses or other buildings, for the purpose of taking the poll therein." 2nd William IV., cap. 45, s. 71.

PAYMENT OF ELECTION EXPENSES.

The several provisions of the "Corrupt Practices Prevention Act, 1854," as to the appointment of an election auditor, and the payment and publication of election expenses, are repealed by the 26th Vic., cap. 29, and the following enactments are substituted:—

By Sec. 2, no payment, (except in respect of the personal expenses of a candidate,) advance, loan, or deposit, by or on behalf of any candidate, before, during, or after an election, is to be made otherwise than through an appointed agent of such candidate. Persons making any such prohibited payment, &c. shall be guilty of a misdemeanour.

The candidate is to declare in writing, to the Returning Officer, on or before the day of nomination, the name and address of his agent or agents; and it is the duty of the Returning Officer to publish the same.

By Sec. 3, all bills, charges, or claims upon any candidate shall be sent in within one month from the day of declaration of the election, to the appointed agent, or right to recover the same barred. Should there be no agent, the bills, &c. are then to be sent to the candidate.

By Sec. 4, a detailed statement of all election expenses incurred, shall, within two months after the election, be made out and signed by the agent who has paid the same, and delivered, with the bills and vouchers, to the returning officer. The returning officer, within fourteen days, is to publish an abstract of such statement, with the signature of the agent thereto, by advertisement in one of the local newspapers. Any agent or candidate making default in delivering such statement, shall incur a penalty not exceeding five pounds for every day during which he so makes default. Any agent or candidate who wilfully furnishes an untrue statement shall be guilty of a misdemeanour. The returning officer is to preserve the bills and vouchers during six months, and to permit any voter to inspect the same, on payment of a fee of one shilling.

Bribery, Treating, and Intimidation.

All the laws relating to bribery and corrupt practices have been consolidated, and amended by "The Corrupt Practices Prevention Act, 1854," the operation of which is continued by the 23rd and 24th Victoria, cap. 99. Definitions of the offences of bribery, treating, and intimidation, with the several penalties and remedies attached thereto, will be found in the first fourteen sections of the Act.

No person, who is called as a witness before any election committee, shall be excused from answering any question on the ground that the answer may tend to criminate himself. Committee may grant a certificate to any witness, which shall be a stay to any proceedings taken against him in respect of any matters concerning or relating to which the witness may have been examined. 26th Vic. cap. 29.

Favours, Bands of Music, &c.

Cockades, ribbons, and colours are prohibited, and payments for bands of music, flags, and banners illegal. S. 7.

Travelling Expenses of Voters.

It is not lawful "to pay any money, or give any valuable consideration to a voter, for or in respect of his travelling expenses;" but any candidate, or his agent, may "provide conveyances for any voter, for the purpose of polling at an election, and not otherwise." An account of the expenses so incurred is to be rendered to the election auditor. 21st and 22nd Victoria, cap. 87, s. 1.

"THE CORRUPT PRACTICES PREVENTION ACT, 1854."

Bribery at Elections and Payment of Election Expenses.

(17th and 18th Victoria, cap. 102.)

An Act to consolidate and amend the Laws relating to Bribery, Treating, and undue Influence at Elections of Members of Parliament.

[10th August, 1854.]

WHEREAS the laws now in force for preventing corrupt practices in the election of members to serve in Parliament have been found insufficient; And whereas it is expedient to consolidate and amend such laws, and to make further provision for securing the freedom of such elections: Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

I. The several Acts of Parliament mentioned in the Schedule A. hereto annexed shall be repealed to the extent specified concerning the same Acts respectively in the third column of the said Schedule.

II. The following persons shall be deemed guilty of Bribery, and shall be punishable accordingly:

1. Every person who shall, directly or indirectly, by himself, or by any other person on his behalf, give, lend, or agree to give or lend, or shall offer, promise, or promise to procure or to endeavour to procure, any money, or valuable consideration, to or for any voter, or to or for any person on behalf of any voter, or to or for any other person in order to induce any voter to vote, or refrain from voting, or shall corruptly do any such act as aforesaid, on account of such voter having voted or refrained from voting at any election:
2. Every person who shall, directly or indirectly, by himself, or by any other person on his behalf, give or procure, or agree to give or procure, or offer, promise, or promise to procure or to endeavour to procure, any office, place, or employment to or for any voter, or to or for any person on behalf of any voter, or to or for any other person, in order to induce such voter to vote, or refrain from voting, or shall corruptly do any such act as aforesaid, on account of any voter having voted or refrained from voting at any election:
3. Every person who shall, directly or indirectly, by himself, or by any other person on his behalf, make any such gift, loan, offer, promise, procurement, or agreement as aforesaid, to or for any person, in order to induce such person to procure, or endeavour to procure, the return of any person to serve in Parliament, or the vote of any voter at any election:
4. Every person who shall, upon or in consequence of any such gift, loan, offer, promise, procurement, or agreement, procure or engage, promise, or endeavour to procure the return of any person to serve in Parliament, or the vote of any voter at any election:
5. Every person who shall advance or pay, or cause to be paid, any money to, or to the use of any other person, with the intent that such money, or any part thereof, shall be expended in bribery at any election, or who shall knowingly pay, or cause to be paid, any money to any person in discharge or repayment of any money wholly or in part expended in bribery at any election:

And any person so offending shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and in Scotland of an offence punishable by fine and imprisonment, and shall also be liable to forfeit the sum of one hundred pounds to any person who shall sue for the same, together with full costs of suit: Provided always, that the aforesaid enactment shall not extend or be construed to extend to any money paid or agreed to be paid for or on account of any legal expenses bond fide incurred at or concerning any election.

III. The following persons shall also be deemed guilty of bribery, and shall be punishable accordingly :—

1. Every voter who shall, before or during any election, directly or indirectly, by himself, or by any other person on his behalf, receive, agree, or contract for any money, gift, loan, or valuable consideration, office, place, or employment, for himself or for any other person, for voting or agreeing to vote, or for refraining or agreeing to refrain from voting at any election :
2. Every person who shall, after any election, directly or indirectly, by himself, or by any other person on his behalf, receive any money or valuable consideration on account of any person having voted or refrained from voting, or having induced any other person to vote or to refrain from voting, at any election :

And any person so offending shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and in Scotland, of an offence punishable by fine and imprisonment, and shall also be liable to forfeit the sum of ten pounds to any person who shall sue for the same, together with full costs of suit.

IV. Every candidate at an election, who shall corruptly by himself, or by or with any person, or by any other ways or means on his behalf, at any time, either before, during, or after any election, directly or indirectly give or provide, or cause to be given or provided, or shall be accessory to the giving or providing, or shall pay, wholly or in part, any expenses incurred for any meat, drink, entertainment, or provision to or for any person, in order to be elected, or for being elected, or for the purpose of corruptly influencing such person or any other person to give or refrain from giving his vote at such election, or on account of such person having voted or refrained from voting, or being about to vote or refrain from voting, at such election shall be deemed guilty of the offence of treating, and shall forfeit the sum of fifty pounds to any person who shall sue for the same, with full costs of suit ; and every voter who shall corruptly accept or take any such meat, drink, entertainment, or provision, shall be incapable of voting at such election, and his vote, if given, shall be utterly void and of none effect.

V. Every person who shall, directly or indirectly, by himself, or by any other person on his behalf, make use of, or threaten to make use of, any force, violence or restraint, or inflict or threaten the infliction, by himself, or by or through any other person, of any injury, damage, harm or loss, or in any other manner practise intimidation upon or against any person in order to induce or compel such person to vote or refrain from voting, or on account of such person having voted or refrained from voting, at any election, or who shall, by abduction, duress, or any fraudulent device or contrivance, impede, prevent, or otherwise interfere with the free exercise of the franchise of any voter, or shall thereby compel, induce, or prevail upon any voter, either to give or to refrain from giving his vote at any election, shall be deemed to have committed the offence of undue influence, and shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and in Scotland, of an offence punishable by fine or imprisonment, and shall also be liable to forfeit the sum of fifty pounds to any person who shall sue for the same, together with full costs of suit.

VI. Whenever it shall be proved before the Revising Barrister that any person who is or claims to be placed on the list or register of voters for any county, city, or borough, has been convicted of bribery or undue influence at an election, or that judgment has been obtained against any such person for any penal sum hereby made recoverable in respect of the offences of bribery, treating, or undue influence, or either of them, then and in that case such Revising Barrister shall, in case the name of such person is in the list of voters, expunge the same therefrom, or shall, in case such person is claiming to have his name inserted therein, disallow such claim; and the names of all persons whose names shall be so expunged from the list of voters, and whose claims shall be so disallowed, shall be thereupon inserted in a separate list, to be entitled "The list of persons disqualified for bribery, treating, or undue influence," which last-mentioned list shall be appended to the list or register of voters, and shall be printed and published therewith, wherever the same shall be or is required to be printed or published.

VII. No candidate before, during, or after any election shall, in regard to such election, by himself or agent, directly or indirectly, give or provide to or for any person having a vote at such election, or to or for any inhabitant of the county, city, borough, or place for which such election is had, any cockade, ribbon, or other mark of distinction; and every person so giving or providing shall, for every such offence, forfeit the sum of two pounds to such person as shall sue for the same, together with full costs of suit; and all payments made for or on account of any charring, or any such cockade, ribbon, or mark of distinction as aforesaid, or of any bands of music or flags or banners, shall be deemed illegal payments within this Act.

VIII. No person having a right to vote at the election for any county, city, borough, or other place, shall be liable or compelled to serve as a special constable at or during any election for a member or members to serve in Parliament for such county, city, borough, or other place, unless he shall consent so to act; and he shall not be liable to any fine, penalty, or punishment whatever for refusing so to act, any statute, law, or usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

IX. The pecuniary penalties hereby imposed for the offences of bribery, treating, or undue influence respectively, shall be recoverable by action or suit, by any person who shall sue for the same in any of Her Majesty's Superior Courts at Westminster, if the offence be committed in England or Wales, and in any of Her Majesty's Superior Courts in Dublin, if the offence be committed in Ireland, and in or before the Court of Session, if the offence be committed in Scotland, and not otherwise.

X. It shall be lawful for any criminal court, before which any prosecution shall be instituted for any offence against the provisions of this Act, to order payment to the prosecutor of such costs and expenses as to the said court shall appear to have been reasonably incurred in and about the conduct of such prosecution: Provided always, that no indictment for bribery, or undue influence shall be triable before any Court of Quarter Sessions.

XI. For the more effectual observance of this Act, every returning officer to whom the execution of any writ or precept for electing any member or members to serve in Parliament may appertain or belong shall, in lieu of the proclamation or notice of election heretofore used, publish or cause to be published such proclamation or notice of election as is mentioned in Schedule B. to this Act, or to the like effect.

XII. In case of any indictment or information by a private prosecutor for any offence against the provisions of this Act, if judgment shall be given for the defendant, he shall be entitled to recover from the prosecutor the costs sustained by the defendant by reason of such indictment or information, such costs to be taxed by the proper officer of the court in which such judgment shall be given.

XIII. It shall not be lawful for any court to order payment of the costs of a prosecution for any offence against the provisions of this Act, unless the prosecutor shall, before or upon the finding of the indictment or the granting of the information, enter into a recognizance, with two sufficient sureties, in the sum of two hundred pounds (to be acknowledged in like manner as is now required in cases of writs of certiorari awarded at the instance of a defendant in an indictment), with the conditions following; that is to say, that the prosecutor shall conduct the prosecution with effect, and shall pay to the defendant or defendants, in case he or they shall be acquitted, his or their costs.

XIV. No person shall be liable to any penalty or forfeiture hereby enacted or imposed, unless some prosecution, action, or suit for the offence committed shall be commenced against such person within the space of one year next after such offence against this Act shall be committed, and unless such person shall be summoned or otherwise served with writ or process within the same space of time so as such summons or service of writ or process shall not be prevented by such person absconding or withdrawing out of the jurisdiction of the court out of which such writ or other process shall have issued; and in case of any such prosecution, suit, or process as aforesaid, the same shall be proceeded with and carried on without any wilful delay.

XXIII. And whereas doubts have also arisen as to whether the giving of refreshment to voters on the day of nomination or day of polling be or be not according to law, and it is expedient that such doubts should be removed: Be it declared and enacted, that the giving or causing to be given to any voter on the day of nomination or day of polling, on account of such voter having polled or being about to poll, any meat, drink, or entertainment by way of refreshment, or any money or ticket to enable such voter to obtain refreshment, shall be deemed an illegal act, and the person so offending shall forfeit the sum of forty shillings for each offence, to any person who shall sue for the same, together with full costs of suit.

XXXIII. If any candidate at any election, or any member hereafter returned to serve in Parliament, shall before the passing of this Act have paid any money for or in respect of any election hereafter to be held, or any expenses thereof, such person shall, to the best of his ability, deliver a full, true, and particular account of such payment or payments to the election auditor.

Sections 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31, 32, and 34, are repealed by the 26th Vic., cap. 29. See page 166.

XXXV. On the trial of any action for recovery of any pecuniary penalty under this Act, the parties to such action, and the husbands and wives of such parties respectively, shall be competent and compellable to give evidence in the same manner as parties, and their husbands and wives, are competent and compellable to give evidence in actions and suits under the Act of the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Victoria, chapter ninety-nine, and "The Evidence Amendment Act, 1853," but subject to and with the exceptions contained in such several Acts: Provided always, that any such evidence shall not thereafter be used in any indictment or criminal proceeding under this Act against the party giving it.

XXXVI. If any candidate at an election for any county, city, or borough shall be declared by any election committee guilty, by himself or his agents, of bribery, treating, or undue influence at such election, such candidate shall be incapable of being elected or sitting in Parliament for such county, city, or borough during the Parliament then in existence.

XXXVII. In citing this Act in any instrument, document, or proceeding, or for any purpose whatsoever, it shall be sufficient to use the expression "The Corrupt Practices Prevention Act, 1854."

XXXVIII. Throughout this Act, in the construction thereof, except there be something in the subject or context repugnant to such construction, the word "county" shall extend to and mean any county, riding, parts, or division of a county, stewardry, or combined counties respectively returning a member or members to serve in Parliament; and the words "city or borough" shall mean any university, city, borough, town corporate, county of a city, county of a town, cinque port, district of burghs, or other place or combination of places (not being a county as hereinbefore defined) returning a member or members to serve in Parliament; and the word "election" shall mean the election of any member or members to serve in Parliament; and the words "returning officer" shall apply to any person or persons to whom, by virtue of his or their office, under any law, custom, or statute, the execution of any writ or precept doth or shall belong for the election of a member or members to serve in Parliament, by whatever name or title such person or persons may be called; and the words "revising barrister" shall extend to and include an assistant barrister and chairman presiding in any court held for the revision of the lists of voters, or his deputy in Ireland, and a sheriff or sheriff's court of appeal in Scotland, and every other person whose duty it may be to hold a court for the revision and correction of the lists or registers of voters in any part of the United Kingdom; and the word "voter" shall mean any person who has or claims to have a right to vote in the election of a member or members to serve in Parliament; [and the words "candidate at an election" shall include all persons elected as members to serve in Parliament at such election, and all persons nominated as candidates, or who shall have declared themselves candidates at or before such election] (a); and the words "personal expenses," as used herein with respect to the expenditure of any candidate in relation to any election, shall include the reasonable travelling expenses of such candidate, and the reasonable expenses of his living at hotels or elsewhere for the purposes of and in relation to such election.

XXXIX. This Act shall continue in force for one year next after the passing thereof, and thenceforth to the end of the then next session of Parliament.

First Continuance Act.

19th & 20th Victoria Regina, cap. 84.

Second Continuance Act.

Act 21st & 22nd Victoria, cap. 87, an Act to continue and amend the Corrupt Practices Prevention Act, 1854.

[2nd August, 1858.]

WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Session holden in the Seventeenth and Eighteenth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter One hundred and two, "to consolidate and amend the Laws relating to Bribery, Treating, and undue Influence at Elections of Members of Parliament;" and by an Act of the Session holden in the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, Chapter Eighty-four, the said first-mentioned Act was continued until the Tenth Day of August, One thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, and thenceforth to the end of the then next Session of Parliament: And whereas it is expedient that the said first-mentioned Act should be further continued and amended: Be it enacted, &c., that

I. It shall be lawful for any candidate, or his agent by him appointed in writing according to the provisions of the first-mentioned Act, to provide conveyance for any voter for the purpose of polling at an Election and not otherwise, but it shall not be lawful to pay any money or give any valuable consideration to a voter for or in respect of his travelling expenses for such purpose.

Part of Section 1, and the whole of Section 2, are repealed by the 26th Vic., cap 29. See page 166.

III. So much of Section Thirty-eight of the said first-mentioned Act as defines the words "Candidate at an Election," shall be repealed; and in the construction of the said Act as amended by this Act, the words "Candidate at an Election," and the words "Candidate at any Election," shall include all persons elected to serve in Parliament at such election, and all persons nominated as Candidates at such election, or who shall have declared themselves Candidates on or after the day of the issuing of the writ for such election, or after the dissolution or vacancy in consequence of which such writ shall have been issued: Provided that nothing herein contained shall be construed to impose any liability on any person nominated without his consent.

Third Continuance Act.

[20th August, 1860.]

"The said first-mentioned Act (17th and 18th Victoriae, cap. 102), as amended by the said Act of the twenty-first and twenty-second years of Her Majesty, shall continue in force until the tenth day of August, 1861."

Anno 24 & 25 Vic. cap. 122. [6th August, 1861.]

Fifth Continuance Act.

Anno 25 & 26 Vic. cap. 109. [7th August, 1862.]

The Act further continued in force until the 1st day of September, 1863.

Anno 26 Vic. cap. 29.

An Act to amend and continue the Law relating to Corrupt Practices at Elections of Members of Parliament.

[8th June, 1863.]

WHEREAS "The Corrupt Practices Prevention Act, 1854," as amended by an Act of the Session holden in the twenty-first and twenty-second years of Her Majesty, chapter eighty-seven, is limited to continue in force until the first day of September One thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, and from thence until the end of the next Session of Parliament: and it is expedient further to amend the said Acts and to continue the same in manner hereinafter mentioned: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

I. The expression "The Corrupt Practices Prevention Acts" shall include this Act and the said Act of the twenty-first and twenty-second years of the reign of Her present Majesty, and "The Corrupt Practices Prevention Act, 1854," as amended by the said other Acts.

Expenses of Elections.

II. No payment (except in respect to the personal expenses of a candidate), and no advance, loan, or deposit, shall be made by or on behalf of any candidate at an election, before, or during, or after such election, on account of or in respect of such election, otherwise than through an agent or agents whose name and address or names and addresses have been declared in writing to the returning officer on or before the day of nomination, or through an agent or agents to be appointed in his or their place as herein provided; and any person making any such payment, advance, loan, or deposit, otherwise than through such agent or agents, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, or, in Scotland of an offence punishable by fine and imprisonment. It shall be the duty of the returning officer to publish, on or before the day of nomination, the name and address or the names and addresses of the agent or agents appointed in pursuance of this section.

In the event of the death or legal incapacity of any agent appointed in pursuance of this section, the candidate shall forthwith appoint another agent in his place on giving notice to the returning officer of the name and address of the person so appointed, which shall be forthwith published by the returning officer.

III. All persons who have any bills, charges, or claims upon any candidate for or in respect of any election shall send in such bills, charges, or claims, within one month from the day of the declaration of the election to such agent or agents as aforesaid, otherwise such persons shall be barred of their right to recover such claims and every or any part thereof: provided always, that in case of the death within the said month of any person claiming the amount of such bill, charge, or claim, the legal representative of such person shall send in such bill, charge, or claim within one month after obtaining probate or letters of administration, or confirmation as executor, as the case may be, or the right to recover such claim shall be barred as aforesaid: provided also that such bills, charges, and claims shall and may be sent in and delivered to the candidate, if, and so long as, during the said month, there shall, owing to death or legal incapacity, be no such agent.

IV. A detailed statement of all election expenses incurred by or on behalf of any candidate, including such expected payments as aforesaid, shall, within two months after the election, (or in cases where by reason of the death of the creditor no bill has been sent in within such period of two months, then within one month after such bill has been sent in,) be made out and signed by the agent or, if there be more than one, by every agent who has paid the same (including the candidate in case of payments made by him), and delivered, with the bills and vouchers relative thereto, to the returning officer, and the returning officer for the time being shall, at the expense of the candidate, within fourteen days, insert or cause to be inserted, an abstract of such statement, with the signature of the agent thereto, in some newspaper published or circulating in the county or place where the election was held; and any agent or candidate who makes default in delivering to the returning officer the statement required by this section shall incur a penalty not exceeding five pounds for every day during which he so makes default; and any agent or candidate who wilfully furnishes to the said returning officer an untrue statement shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, or in Scotland of an offence punishable by fine and imprisonment; and the said returning officer shall preserve all such bills and vouchers, and during six months after they have been delivered to him permit any voter to inspect the same, on payment of a fee of one shilling.

Legal Proceedings.

V. The provisions of the fourteenth section of "The Corrupt Practices Prevention Act, 1854," shall extend to a misdemeanor or to any other offence under the Corrupt Practices Prevention Acts not punishable by a penalty or forfeiture, as well as to proceedings for any offence punishable by a penalty or forfeiture.

VI. In any indictment or information for bribery or undue influence, and in any action or proceeding for any penalty for bribery, treating, or undue influence, it shall be sufficient to allege that the defendant was at the election at or in connexion with which the offence is intended to be alleged to have been committed guilty of bribery, treating, or undue influence (as the case may require); and in any criminal or civil proceedings in relation to any such offence the certificate of the returning officer in this behalf shall be sufficient evidence of the due holding of the election, and of any person therein named having been a candidate thereat.

VII. No person who is called as a witness before any election committee, or any commissioners appointed in pursuance of the act of the session holden in the fifteenth and sixteenth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, chapter fifty-seven, shall be excused from answering any question relating to any corrupt practice at, or connected with, any election forming the subject of inquiry by such committee or commissioners, on the ground that the answer thereto may criminate or tend to criminate himself: Provided always, that where any witness shall answer every question relating to the matters aforesaid which he shall be required by such committee or commissioners (as the case may be) to answer, and the answer to which may criminate, or tend to criminate him, he shall be entitled to receive from the committee, under the hand of their clerk, or from the commissioners, under their hands (as the case may be), a certificate stating that such witness was, upon his examination, required by the said committee or commissioners to answer questions or a question relating to the matters aforesaid, the answers or answer to which criminated or tended to criminate him, and had answered all such questions or such question; and if any information, indictment, or action be at any time thereafter pending in any court against such witness for any offence under the Corrupt Practices Prevention Acts, or for which he might have been prosecuted or proceeded against under such acts, committed by him previously to the time of his giving his evidence, and at or in relation to the election concerning or in relation to which the witness may have been so examined, the court shall, on production and proof of such certificate, stay the proceedings in such last-mentioned information, indictment, or action, and may, at its discretion, award to such witness such costs as he may have been put to in such information, indictment, or action: Provided that no statement made by any person in answer to any question put by or before such election committee or commissioners shall, except in cases of indictments for perjury, be admissible in evidence in any proceeding, civil or criminal.

Election Committees.

VIII. The following regulations shall be made with respect to the proceedings of select committees appointed to try election petitions:—

1. On any charge of treating being brought before any election committee, it shall not be necessary, unless the committee should otherwise decide, to prove agency in the first instance before giving in evidence the facts whereby the charge of treating is to be sustained :
2. Where any person who has voted at any election is found by any committee to have been guilty of bribery or treating at such election, his vote shall be void, and may, upon a scrutiny, be struck off the list of voters, notwithstanding that the name of such guilty person has not been included in the list of voters to be objected to :
3. Where any election petition complains that bribery, treating, or other corrupt practices have been committed at any election, the committee to whose determination such petition is referred shall report to the House of Commons whether or not corrupt practices have, or whether there is reason to believe corrupt practices have, extensively prevailed at such election in the place to which the petition refers.

IX. Where an election committee has reported to the House of Commons that certain persons named by them have been guilty of bribery or treating, and where it appears by the report of any commission of inquiry into corrupt practices at any election made to Her Majesty and laid before Parliament that certain persons named by them have been guilty of the offences of bribery or treating, and have not been furnished by them with certificates of indemnity, such report, with the evidence taken by the commission, shall be laid before the Attorney General, with a view to his instituting a prosecution against such persons if the evidence should, in his opinion, be sufficient to support a prosecution.

Repeal.

X. There shall be repealed the several Acts of Parliament mentioned in the Schedule hereto to the extent specified in the third column of the said Schedule, but such repeal shall not affect the punishment of any offence or the recovery of any penalty or forfeiture incurred under any of the provisions hereby repealed.

XI. The Corrupt Practices Prevention Acts shall continue in force for a period of five years from the date of the passing of this Act, and from thenceforth until the end of the then next session of Parliament.

The Schedule. Extent of Repeal.

15th and 16th Vic., cap 57. A.D. 1852. Sections 9 and 10.

17th and 18th Vic., cap. 102. A.D. 1854. Sections 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31, 32, and 34.

21st and 22nd Vic., cap. 87. A.D. 1858. So much of Section (1) as provides that a full, true, and particular account of all payments made for such conveyance, signed by the candidate or his agents, shall be delivered to the election auditor, with the names and addresses of the persons to whom such payments have been made, and the amount of such account shall be included in the general account of the expenses incurred at any election to be made out and kept by such election auditor. Also Sections 2, 4.

VOTING PAPERS AT UNIVERSITY ELECTIONS.

An Act to provide that Votes at Elections for the Universities may be recorded by means of Voting Papers, 24 & 25 Vic. cap. 58.

[1st August, 1861.]

1. It shall be lawful for such Electors, in lieu of attending to vote in person, to nominate any other elector or electors of the same University, competent to make the declaration hereinafter mentioned, to deliver for them at the poll voting papers containing their votes, as by this Act provided. Every such voting paper shall bear date subsequently to notice given by the returning officer of the day for proceeding to election, and shall contain the name or names of the candidate or candidates thereby voted for, and the name or names of the elector or electors authorised on behalf of the voter to tender such voting paper at the poll, and shall be according to the form or to the effect prescribed in the schedule to this Act annexed. Such voting paper, the aforesaid date and names being previously filled in, shall, on any day subsequent to notice given by the returning officer of the day for proceeding to election, be signed by the voter in the presence of a Justice of the Peace for the county or borough in which such voter shall be then residing; and the said Justice shall certify and attest the fact of such voting paper having been so signed in his presence, by signing at the foot thereof a certificate of attestation in the form or to the effect prescribed in the said schedule, with his name and address in full, and shall state his quality as a Justice of the Peace for such county or borough.

2. The voting paper, signed and certified as aforesaid, may be delivered to the Vice Chancellor of the University for which the election is held, or to any Pro Vice Chancellor appointed by him, or, in the case of the University of Dublin, to the Provost of Trinity College, or to any person lawfully deputed to act for him, at any one of the appointed polling places, during the appointed hours of polling, by any one of the persons therein nominated in that behalf, who shall, on tendering such voting paper at the poll, read out the same; and the said Vice Chancellor, Pro Vice Chancellor, Provost, or Deputy shall receive the voting papers as the same shall be delivered, and shall cause the votes thereby given, or such of them as may not appear to be contrary to the provisions of this Act, to be recorded in the manner heretofore used, in all respects as if such votes had been given by the electors attending in person; and all votes so recorded shall have the same validity and effect as if they had been duly given by the voters in person: Provided always, that no person shall be entitled to sign or vote by more than one voting paper at any election, and that no voting paper containing the names of more candidates than there are Burgesses to be elected at such election shall be received or recorded; Provided also, that no voting paper shall be received or recorded unless the person tendering the same shall make the following declaration, which he shall sign at the foot or back thereof:

“ I solemnly declare, that I am personally acquainted with A.B. [the voter], and I verily believe that this is the paper by which he intends to vote pursuant to the provisions of the Universities Elections Act.”

Provided also, that no voting paper shall be so received and recorded if the voter signing the same shall have already voted in person at the same election: Provided also, that every such elector shall be entitled to vote in person, notwithstanding that he has duly signed and transmitted a voting paper to another elector, if such voting paper has not been already tendered at the poll.

8. It shall be lawful for any person now by law or custom authorised on behalf of any candidate to object to votes to inspect any voting paper tendered at the poll before the same shall be received or recorded, and to object to it on one or more of the following grounds:

1. That the person on whose behalf the voting paper is tendered is not qualified to vote:
2. That the person tendering the voting paper is not duly qualified in that behalf:
3. That the person in whose behalf the voting paper is tendered has already voted at that election in person or by voting paper:
4. That the voting paper bears date anterior to notice given by the returning officer of the day for proceeding to election:
5. That the voting paper is forged or falsified:

And the returning officer, his deputy or assessor, or any officer having by law or custom power to decide objections in respect of votes tendered by voters attending the poll in person, shall have power to put questions to the person tendering such voting paper, and to reject, receive, and record, or receive and record as objected to or protested against, any votes tendered by voting papers: Provided, that in case the objection offered to any voting paper shall be that it is forged or falsified, such returning or other officer shall receive and record such voting paper, having previously written upon it, "Objected to as forged," or "Objected to as falsified," together with the name of the person make such objection.

4. All voting papers received and recorded at such election, as well as any voting papers rejected for informality or on any other ground, shall be filed and kept by the officer entrusted with the care of the poll books or other documents relating to the said election; and any person shall be allowed to examine such voting papers at all reasonable times, and to take copies thereof, upon payment of a fee of one shilling.

5. Any person falsely or fraudulently signing any voting paper in the name of any other person, either as a voter or as a witness, whether such other person shall be living or dead, and every person signing, subscribing, endorsing, attesting, certifying, tendering, or transmitting as genuine any false or falsified voting paper, knowing the same to be false or falsified, and any person falsely making any such declaration as aforesaid, or such declaration as is contained in the schedule, or with fraudulent intent altering, defacing, destroying, withholding, or abstracting any voting paper, and any person wilfully making a false answer to any question put to him by the returning or other officer as hereinbefore provided, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and punishable by fine, or imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year.

6. No such voting paper as hereinbefore mentioned shall be liable to any stamp duty.

THE QUALIFICATION OF ELECTORS.

PERSONS INELIGIBLE TO BE ELECTORS.

Women; persons under twenty-one years of age; peers; Irish peers, except members of the House of Commons; aliens, unless made denizens by the Queen's letters patent, or naturalized by Act of Parliament; persons of unsound mind—idiots, and lunatics; persons convicted of felony, bribery, perjury, or petit larceny; commissioners and officers of excise, customs, stamps, and taxes; all persons in the employ of the post office; police magistrates or police officers, and all persons employed in the Thames and Metropolitan police, and in the counties of Hertford, Essex, Kent, Surrey, and Middlesex.

I.—ELECTORS FOR COUNTIES.

The qualification of County Electors is the possession of FREEHOLD, COPYHOLD, or LEASEHOLD land, or tenements of certain prescribed values, or the OCCUPATION thereof as tenant, paying 50*l.* yearly rent; hence arise the four classes of County Electors, known as FREEHOLDERS, COPYHOLDERS, LEASEHOLDERS, and OCCUPIERS.

1.—FREEHOLDERS.

The right of voting for County Members is secured to Freeholders by the 8th Henry VI., cap. 7, A.D. 1430, which declares "That the knights of the shires, to be chosen to come to the Parliament of our Lord the King, shall be chosen in every County by people dwelling and resident in the same, whereof every one of them shall have free land or tenement, to the value of FORTY SHILLINGS by the year at least, above all charges."

By the 10th of Henry VI., cap. 9, the qualifying property is required to be situate within the County; and by the 14th George III., cap. 58, that part of the statute requiring residence within the County, was repealed.

Act 2nd William IV., cap. 45. No freeholder to vote in respect of FREEHOLDS FOR LIFE, unless of the clear annual value of TEN POUNDS, except the estate were acquired on or before the 7th of June, 1832, or by marriage, marriage settlement, by devise, or by promotion to any benefice or office; or unless the freeholder is in actual occupation of the property.

If the freeholder occupy his freehold property in a borough, and it be of such a nature and value as would confer upon him the right to vote for the borough, as the occupier, he will not be entitled, in respect of that property, to vote for the county.

The voter's title to the estate need not be at law; it is sufficient that it be maintainable in equity.

A person who has entered into an agreement to purchase property, and paid part of the purchase-money, or done any other act entitling him to the rents and profits actually arising, may be considered to have an equitable estate, and is entitled to be registered.

Joint Tenants and Tenants in common have each a right to vote, provided the property be of sufficient annual value to give a share to each of the amount required.

Mortgagees may vote when in actual possession, or in receipt of the rents and profits, but not otherwise. Trustees are expressly excluded from voting for any trust estate; the right of voting in respect of trust property is reserved to the cestui que trust. 6th Victoria, cap. 18, s. 74.

Besides lands, houses, buildings, and the like, property and interests of the following description will entitle the owner to be registered to vote, viz. Tithes—an Annuity or Rent-charge, charged on land—Fee-farm rents issuing out of an estate in fee—Shares in Navigable Rivers, Canals, &c., where the Shareholders possess an interest in the soil—Tolls of Bridges—Tolls of Fairs and Markets—Purchases of Land-tax—Offices for life, where the emoluments are derived from land, as Rectors, Vicars, Parish Clerks, &c.

To be entitled to be registered, the claimant must have been in actual possession, or in receipt of the rents and profits, for six calendar months next previous to the last day of July, except he became possessed of the estate by descent, succession, marriage, marriage settlement, devise, or promotion to any benefice or office.

In the case of an annuity, rent-charge, and other incorporeal estates the rent must be due and be paid six months prior to the 31st of July. See Murray v. Thornily, in the Appeal Cases.

2.—COPYHOLDERS.

“Every male person, of full age, seised at law or in equity of any land or tenements of copyhold, or any other tenure whatever except freehold, for his own life, or for the life of another, or for any lives whatsoever, or for any larger estate, of the clear yearly value of not less than TEN POUNDS, over and above all rents and charges payable out of or in respect of the same.” 2nd William IV., cap. 45, s. 19.

Tenants in ancient demesne may in general register as freeholders, if they do not hold by copy of Court-roll, but otherwise, they will be entitled as copyholders. As freeholders, 40s. per annum will be sufficient;—but as copyholders, 10l. a year is required.

Copyhold property situate in a parliamentary borough, does not confer the county franchise on the owner, if it be of such a nature as to confer upon the occupier the right of voting for the borough. 2nd William IV., cap. 45, s. 25.

Six months' possession, prior to the 31st of July, is requisite, unless the property be acquired under any of the exceptions given with respect to Freeholders.

3.—LEASEHOLDERS.

The following persons are entitled to be registered as Leaseholders:—

First,—Any person who is entitled by virtue of an original lease made or assigned to him of any lands or tenements for the unexpired residue of any term, originally created for a period of not less than SIXTY YEARS, if the property is of the clear yearly value of TEN POUNDS, above all rents and charges.

Second,—Any person entitled to an original lease, made or assigned to him, of any lands or tenements, for the unexpired residue of a term, originally of not less than TWENTY YEARS, of the annual value of not less than FIFTY POUNDS, over and above all rents and charges.

Third.—Any person entitled to any lands or tenements as sub-lessee, or assignee of an under lease, for either of the above terms and values respectively, when in the actual occupation of the premises.

For the purposes of registering, it does not matter how short may be the unexpired term.

Leasehold property in a borough, if of such nature and value as to give the right of voting to the occupier for the borough, will not entitle the lessee to register for the county.

Twelve months' possession, previous to registration, is required.

Value over and "above all Rents and Charges."

In estimating the annual value of freehold, copyhold, or leasehold property, the rent which a solvent tenant would bond fide pay, is the best criterion. If, owing to accidental circumstances, the rent actually received should be less than might be obtained, the property may still give the right to vote.

"Charges," are all rents reserved, rents charged, or interests issuing out of or charged upon the estate: as ground rents, annuities, mortgage interest, &c. No public, parliamentary, or parochial tax or rate shall be deemed or construed to be any charge payable out of or in respect of any freehold estate. 2nd William IV., cap. 45, s. 21.

4.—OCCUPIERS.

The franchise is given to occupiers by what is popularly known as the "Chandos clause" of the Reform Act: "Every person who shall occupy as tenant any lands or tenements, for which he shall be bond fide liable to a YEARLY RENT of not less than FIFTY POUNDS, shall be entitled to vote." 2nd William IV., cap. 45, s. 20.

The occupation must be under one landlord, or at a single rent. See Gadsby v. Barrow, Appeal Cases.

Joint occupiers are entitled, when the rent is sufficient to allow 50*l.* for each tenant.

Twelve months' occupation, prior to the 31st of July, is necessary before registering.

Non-payment of rates or taxes does not in any way affect the right of voting in counties.

II.—ELECTORS FOR CITIES AND BOROUGHES.

The Electors for CITIES, TOWNS, and BOROUGHES, may be divided into two classes:—

1. Those who are entitled under the Franchise given by the Reform Act.

2. Those who were entitled to vote under the former law, and whose rights have been preserved by the Reform Act.

The first class consists exclusively of,—

I.—TEN POUND RATED OCCUPIERS.

Any person occupying, either as Owner or Tenant, any—

House,
Warehouse,
Counting-house,
Shop,
Or other building,

or any two or more of the foregoing, or any of them, together with any land occupied therewith, by him as owner, or occupied therewith by him as tenant under the same landlord, of the clear yearly value of TEN POUNDS.

Joint occupiers may vote, if the yearly value of the premises will allow to each the sum of 10*l*.

A Landlord letting part of his house to Lodgers, and occupying part himself, both having but one outer door, will be considered as occupying the whole.

A tenant occupying part of the same house with his Landlord, but having a separate outer door, without any internal communication with that part of the premises occupied by his Landlord; or several tenants of the same tenement (the Landlord not residing therein), having each distinct Premises, and control over the common street door, by each having a key, may vote, provided their respective premises are of the required value. See the Appeal Case, Cook and Humber, p. 194.

When the right of voting is in respect of occupation as Owner, the clear yearly value of the premises may be estimated by the rent they would command if let; and when the occupation is as Tenant, the rent actually paid may in general be taken as the test of value; but where, from accidental circumstances, the Rent is less than might be obtained, the Occupier will nevertheless be entitled to vote.

In order to be registered, a Voter must have complied with the following four conditions :—

1. He must have occupied, Twelve Months previous to the 31st of July.

But the premises occupied during the Twelve Months need not have been the same, provided that each set of premises be of the yearly value of 10*l*. and both be set forth in the list or claim.

2. He must have been rated in respect of the Premises, to all the rates for the relief of the Poor, made during the previous Twelve Months.

Joint Occupiers must each be rated separately; but when the Premises are Partnership Property, it is sufficient if the rating be in the name of the firm.

Any person not on the Rate-Book, whether he be separate or joint Occupier of Premises of a description to give a vote, may claim to be rated; and on paying or tendering all arrears (if any) then due, he will be entitled to be rated.

Should the overseer refuse to accept the money, or omit to enter the Claimant's name on the Rate-Book, the party claiming will be deemed to be rated as from the time the Rate was made on which he claimed to be inserted, and of which he tendered payment.

3. He must have paid all rates and assessed taxes due from him previous to the 5th of January.

“No person shall be required, in order to entitle him to have his name inserted in any list of voters for any city, town, or borough in England, to have paid any poor's rates or assessed taxes, except such as shall have become payable from him previously to the fifth day of January in the same year; and that no person shall be entitled to be on any such list of voters, unless the poor's rates and assessed taxes, payable from him previously to the fifth day of January, shall be paid on or before the twentieth day of July next following." 11th and 12th Victoriæ, cap. 90.

Where the rates or taxes are paid by the Landlord in consequence of his receiving a higher amount of Rent from the Tenant, the payment may be considered as being made by the Tenant.

4. The Voter must have resided for Six Months before the 31st July, within the City or Borough, or within Seven Statute Miles of any part thereof. The distance of Seven Miles to be measured in a straight line, on the horizontal plane, from the points, within any city or borough, from which such distance is to be measured; and where there is an Ordnance Map, to be determined by that Map. 6th Victoriæ, cap. 18, s. 76.

Occasional absence, however, will not be construed into want of residence "for six months:" thus, if a man be absent for the six months on his business or calling, yet retain his place of abode, or leave his wife and family in the place, with an intention to return, he will be considered as residing during his absence.

II.—VOTERS IN RESPECT OF ANCIENT RIGHTS.

These may be divided into three principal classes :—

A.—Voters by reason of Interest.

These are Freeholder and Burgage Tenants.

In Cities and Towns being Counties, where such parties had before a right to vote, the right is preserved in perpetuity, provided that if the freehold be held for a life or lives, the property be of the yearly value of 10*l*.

And where this right previously existed, and the boundary of the City or Town has been enlarged, the right is extended to persons within the new boundary.

In order to be registered, such Voters must,—

Firstly,—Have been in possession of the Property, or receipt of the Rents and Profits, Twelve Calendar Months before the 31st July, unless acquired by descent, succession, will, marriage, or promotion, to an office or benefice.

Secondly,—They must have resided within the City or Town, or within Seven Miles thereof, for six months before the 31st July. The distance of Seven Miles is to be measured by a straight line from the place where the Poll has usually been taken, and to be determined by the Ordnance Maps where published. (6 Victoriæ, cap. 18, s. 76.)

The former right of voting, by reason of interest, in Cities and Boroughs, not being Counties of themselves, is preserved only where the property was in possession of the Voter on the 1st of March, 1831, or accrued to him between that day and the 7th of June, 1832, by descent, succession, marriage, will, or promotion. No property acquired since that period can confer the right.

B.—Voters by reason of Personal Rights.

These are Freemen, Liverymen, or Burgesses.

In Cities or Boroughs where such persons were before entitled to vote, they still retain the right;

If admitted on or before the 1st March, 1831.

If admitted since in respect of servitude.

If admitted since by right of birth, derived from any person who was admitted, or entitled to be admitted in respect of birth, on the 1st March, 1831; or who has been admitted since in respect of servitude.

In order to be registered, this class of Voters must—

Firstly,—Have a complete title on the 31st July, so that if that were the day of election, they would, under the former law, have been entitled to vote; in other words, the admission of such a party must be completed by that day.

Secondly,—They must have resided Six Calendar Months before the 31st July, in the City or Borough, or within Seven Statute Miles from the place where the Poll has heretofore been taken. The distance of seven miles to be measured and determined, as before named.

C.—Voters by reason of being Inhabitants.

These are the Inhabitants generally;—Potwallers;—Inhabitant Householders;—and Inhabitants paying Scot and Lot.

An Inhabitant is one who has his place of Abode in a Borough.

An Inhabitant Potwaller is one who furnishes his own Diet.

A Householder is one who occupies a House, and has the exclusive control of the outer door.

A Scot and Lot Voter must have been assessed to all Rates made to the relief of the Poor, within Six Months before the 31st July:—

Or, if omitted by the Overseer, he must have used due diligence to get his name inserted in the Rate.

He must have paid all rates demanded of him; but as regards this class of Voters, non-payment will not disqualify, unless a demand of payment has actually been made.

The rights of all Voters, by reason of inhabitancy in Cities and Boroughs, where the right existed before the Reform Act, is preserved to such Voters as were qualified on the 7th June, 1832.

But the right of these Voters is only preserved as long as they remain qualified, according to the former usages of the City or Borough; and it will be entirely lost, if the Voter's name be omitted from the Register for two years successively, unless the omission is in consequence of the Receipt of Parochial Relief, or of the Voter having been absent on the Queen's service in the army or navy.

In order to be registered, such Voter must be qualified on the 31st July, in such manner as, before the Reform Act, would have enabled him to vote, had that day been the day of election.

And he must have resided, nevertheless, for the same period, and within the same distance, as is required of Burgesses or Freemen.

No City or Borough Elector, whether in respect of the 10*l.* occupation qualification, or in respect of any ancient right, is entitled to vote at any election, "unless he shall, ever since the thirty-first day of July, have resided, and at the time of voting shall continue to reside, within the City or Borough, or within the distance thereof required." 6th Victoriæ, cap. 18, s. 79.

THE REGISTRATION OF ELECTORS,

WITH

CORRECT FORMS OF NOTICES AND LISTS.

The right of choosing representatives in Parliament is one of the most important privileges which the subjects of a free Government can possibly possess. It is, therefore, the bounden duty of every Elector to make himself well acquainted with the nature of the franchise, and the means by which he will be entitled fully to exercise it.

The exercise of the Right of Voting depends on the Voter being duly registered; therefore it is absolutely necessary that he should know clearly how this essential condition to the enjoyment of his right may be properly secured.

It is obvious that THE ELECTION ENTIRELY DEPENDS ON THE REGISTRATION. Every man, who is qualified, and who values the principles which he professes, should use every proper means to have his own name, and the names of his friends, correctly placed upon the Register.

The Registers for Counties and Boroughs in England and Wales are formed under the provisions of "The Registration of Voters' Act," 6th Victoria, cap. 18.

The Register of Electors in COUNTIES is formed by the Clerk of the Peace.

The Registers for CITIES, TOWNS, BOROUGHs, and Cinque Ports, are formed by the Town Clerks; for the City of London, by the Secondary;—for the City of Westminster, and the Borough of Southwark, by their respective High Bailiffs.

I.—COUNTY REGISTRATION.

The following are the Days, on or before which the various matters require attention, and Notices are to be given, in County Registration:—

10th of JUNE, Clerk of the Peace delivers his precept to the Overseers.

20th of June, Overseers publish their Notice for New Claims to be sent in.

20th of July, Last Day for sending Notices of Claim to the Overseers.

31st of July, List of New Claimants made out by the Overseers.

1st of August, List of Voters (i.e. Copy of the existing Register, and the List of New Claimants) published.

25th of August, Last Day for service of Notices of Objection.

29th of August, Lists delivered by the Overseers to the Clerk of the Peace.

1st of September, List of Persons objected to by Registered Electors published.

Between the 15th of September and the 31st of October, the Registration Courts are held by the Revising Barrister.

On or before the 30th November, the Register is delivered by the Clerk of the Peace to the Sheriff. This Register remains in force until the 1st December, in the following year.

CLAIM TO BE REGISTERED.

The notice, published by the Overseers, requires all persons entitled to vote, who are not upon the register in force, or, being thereon, shall not retain the same qualification, or continue in the same place of abode, as described, to send in Notices of Claim, on or before the TWENTIETH of JULY, in the Form given, or to the like effect. The Notice, and Form of Notice of Claim, will be found in the Schedule of County Forms.

The Notice of Claim must be addressed to the Overseers of the Poor of the parish, hamlet, or township in which the qualifying property is situate, and the name of the county or division thereof correctly set forth. Great care should be taken that no error be made in these particulars.

The claimant must date the notice (giving some date between the 20th of June and the 20th of July, and the year), and sign it in full, giving each of his Christian names, if more than one.

The particulars required to be given in the four columns of the Form to the Notice, are as follows:—

First,—The Christian names and surname at full length.

Second,—The place of abode. The usual place of family residence should be given, though a place of business may sometimes be sufficient. The address should be stated, as it would be given in a superscription to a letter, sent by the post.

Third,—Nature of Qualification. As this is essentially the right in respect of which the claim to be registered is made, the claimant cannot be too particular in determining its accurate description.

FREEHOLD or COPYHOLD qualifications should be described as “Freehold house,” or land, rent-charge, &c. as the case may be.

LEASEHOLD, “Lease of house [or, land, &c.] for years;” or, “Leasehold house, land, &c. ;” or, “Leasehold house, &c. as sub-lessee in occupation.”

Note.—Electors, holding short leases, frequently lose their right of voting for twelve months, owing to their mistaking the Occupation for the Leasehold qualification, supposing them to be the same, but they are totally distinct.

Holding under a lease at a rental of 50*l.* is not of itself a Leasehold qualification. The annual value of the property to the claimant must be either 10*l.* or 50*l.* above the rent.

OCCUPATION.—This qualification should be stated as “House (and land) as occupier,” “Occupation of houses in succession,” &c.

Fourth,—Situation of the qualifying property, i.e. the street, lane, or other like place, AND number of the house, if any, where the property is situate. If it cannot be thus described, then, the name of the property, if known by any, or, the name of the occupying tenant.

In the Appeal Case of Eckersley v. Barker, the Court of Common Pleas gave the following decision as to these particulars:—“The direction at the head of the form, No. 2, “appears to us to intend that if the house is in a Street, Lane, “or other like place in the parish, the Street or Lane should “ be mentioned ; and if the houses are numbered, the number

 “ also should be given ; but that if the house and premises
 “ are not in a Street, or Lane, or other like place, but in a “ Road, or on a Common, or the like, then the Name of the “ property should be given, if known by any, or the Name of
 “ the occupying tenant.”

If the qualification consist of a rent-charge, then, in addition to the above particulars, the names of the owners of the property out of which such rent issues, or some of them, must be given ; and should the claim be in respect of the “ successive occupation “ of houses, &c.” the situation of each house must be set forth.

In the form No. 3, Schedule A. p. 204, several examples are given for correctly describing the particulars required. Omission or incorrect description of any of these particulars may subject a claimant, or registered elector, to notice of objection, which will require him to prove his qualification before the Revising Barrister, who may thereupon amend the description, provided such amendment do not add to or change the qualification.

Service of Notice.

The Notice must be served on or before the Twentieth of July ; it may be served either personally on an Overseer or Churchwarden of the parish ; or left at his place of abode or office for transacting parochial business ; or sent to him by the post, the postage being paid, directed, “ To the Overseers of the poor of the parish of ——— in the county of ——— ;” or served by post under the special regulations given at p. 184.

No fee whatever has to be paid therewith ; the requirement of the Reform Act for the payment of a shilling, was repealed by the 6th Victoria, cap. 18.

It is much to be regretted that through the inattention of some Overseers, and the ignorance of others, many electors are frequently disfranchised. It is most important that a duplicate copy of each claim sent to the Overseers should be kept, as, in the event of the name being omitted from the list published, on the production of this duplicate, proof of service, and proof of the qualification, the Revising Barrister may insert the name of the Claimant omitted.

LISTS OF VOTERS.

The copy of the existing Register, and the List of New Claimants are published, by being posted on or near the door of every church and chapel in each parish, on or before the FIRST DAY OF AUGUST ; and remain so posted for a period, including the first two consecutive Sundays. In the margin of these lists will be found the objections made by the overseers, by the words, “ objected ” or “ dead ” being placed against the voters’ names. Copies of the lists are also kept by the Overseers for inspection and sale.

Every elector should examine these lists, to see that he is properly described. If there are any omissions or mistakes, he may get them rectified by the Revising Barrister.

OBJECTIONS BY REGISTERED ELECTORS.

Any person on the register of voters may object to the name of any person being retained upon the above lists, by serving a notice upon the person objected to, and also upon the Overseer of the parish to which the list relates. Where the name of the occupying tenant of the qualifying property, "together with his place of abode," is stated in any list, the objector is required to serve him also with notice.

The forms of these notices will be found in the schedule of county forms.

Notices of objection must be served on or before THE 25TH OF AUGUST. The notice to the party and to the tenant may be delivered personally, or left at the place of abode described in the list, or served by the post, under the special regulations given at p. 186. On the Overseer, the notice should be served in like manner to service of a notice of claim.

Lists of Objections.

The list of persons objected to is published by the Overseers, in the same manner as other lists, from the FIRST TO THE FOURTEENTH OF SEPTEMBER, "both inclusive."

Transmission of Lists to the Clerk of the Peace.

On or before the 29th of August the copy of the register, and the list of new claimants, with the marginal objections, together with a copy of the lists of objections, are forwarded to the Clerk of the Peace by the Overseers of each parish.

REVISION COURTS.

The Revising Barrister, appointed to revise the lists, makes a circuit, and appoints the days and times, between the 15th of September and the last day of October inclusive, for holding his courts. A court is held at each of the polling places of the county; and, at the first court held, the Clerk of the Peace attends with the several lists received from the Overseers, which, together with a copy of the whole register in force, he delivers to the Revising Barrister.

Proceedings on Objections.

On objection, whether by overseers or by registered electors (after proof of due service of the notices given), the voter or claimant is required to prove, to the satisfaction of the Revising Barrister, his possession, on the last day of July, of the qualification set forth in the list. This proof may be given on oath by the voter, or by witnesses, or by the production of the deeds or muniments of title to the property, in respect of which the claim is made; but no evidence of any other qualification than that set forth in the list, can be received by the Court.

Cost on Frivolous Objections or Claims.

If it appear to the Revising Barrister that any claim or objection is "groundless, or frivolous and vexatious," he may award to the objector or claimant the costs, or any part of the costs, not exceeding twenty shillings, which he may have been put to in sustaining his objection or claim.

Application for costs should be made immediately after the decision, and before another case is taken.

Alteration of Polling Place.

By the Reform Act, electors are required to poll at the polling place of the district in which their qualifying property is situate. Where the residence of an elector is at a distant part of the county from such polling-place, much cost and inconvenience are frequently incurred at an election by this requirement. By the 36th section of the Registration

Act, however, provision is made, which enables an elector to poll at the booth for the district in which his residence is situate ; or, residing out of the county, to vote at the polling place most convenient to him. To avail himself of this privilege, the voter must make a claim before the Revising Barrister. If residing out of the county, the claim may be in writing, signed by the claimant, and verified at the Court. The claim may be made in the forms given in the Schedule A, No. 7 and No. 8.

Signing the Lists.

Upon completing the revision of the lists, the Revising Barrister, in open court, signs the same, and they are subsequently forwarded by him to the Clerk of the Peace.

THE NEW REGISTERS.

The several lists, received from the Revising Barrister, are arranged by the Clerk of the Peace in their proper order, in polling districts, and the names of the electors placed in strict alphabetical order for each parish, and then copied into a book or books. The first numeral is placed against the first name in the book, and the numbers continued, seriatim, against the subsequent names to the end. The book, being printed, is, on or before the 30th of November, signed and delivered, by the Clerk of the Peace, to the Sheriff of the County, and "so signed and given into the custody of the Sheriff of the County," it is the register of persons entitled to vote at any election which shall take place between the last day of November, in the year in which such register is made, and the first of December in the succeeding year.

Copies of the register are kept for sale by the Clerk of the Peace. The prices to be charged for each copy will be found at p. 184.

II.—CITY AND BOROUGH REGISTRATION.

Days, on or before which notices are to be given, lists published, &c. in borough registration:—

10th of June, Town Clerk delivers his precept to the Overseers.

20th of June, Overseers publish their Notice relative to the payment of rates and assessed taxes by voters.

20th of July, the rates and assessed taxes due on the previous 5th January must be paid on or before this day.

22nd of July, Collectors of assessed taxes make out and deliver to Overseers a list of defaulters.

1st of August, Overseers and the Town Clerk publish their respective lists of persons entitled to vote.

25th of August, last day for persons omitted from the list of voters, to send in their claims.

25th of August, last day for the service of notices of objection.

29th of August, lists are delivered by the Overseers to the Town Clerk.

1st of September, list of persons objected to, and list of claimants published.

The Revision Courts are held, and the register remains in force, within the same periods as in counties.

There is this important distinction between county and borough registration, that in the former the proper enrolment of his name is made the special duty of the voter; whereas, in the latter, it is the official business of the Town Clerk and Overseers to insert the names of all persons entitled to vote in the lists made out by them. Still, in practice, it happens, to a very considerable extent, that the right of persons, in cities and boroughs, to the franchise, is not brought to the knowledge of the Overseers; and it therefore frequently becomes necessary for persons entitled to vote to take the initiary steps to effect their registration.

Being rated to all rates for the relief of the poor for twelve months prior to the 31st of July, is one essential ingredient of the 10*l.* occupation franchise. Consequently, all persons who would be entitled in July to have their names inserted in the lists published by the Overseers, should see, in proper time, that they are rated; and if they find this not to be the case, claim of the overseers to be rated in respect of the premises occupied by them.

Claim to be Rated.

The demand to be rated need not be made in writing; but it is better that it should be so made, and the notice properly served upon the Overseers. At the time of making the demand, the claimant must actually pay or tender "the full amount of the rate or rates, if any, then due in respect of such premises." The Overseers are thereupon required to put the name of such occupier upon the rate for the time being; but if they neglect to do so, the occupier is nevertheless to be deemed to have been rated. Reform Act, s. 30.

The claim to be rated need not be repeated, in respect of the subsequent rates. By the 14th and 15th Victoriæ, cap. 14, "No person, so claiming to be rated, and paying or tendering, on or before the 20th day of July in each year, the full amount of the rate or rates, if any, due in respect of the premises on the 5th of January preceding, shall be required to make any future claim, in regard to any future rate upon the premises, in respect whereof his right to vote in any election shall arise."

Any person, having occupied premises for which he was liable to be rated during the twelve months, and who shall have bond fide paid all sums of money which he shall have been called upon to pay "as rates, in respect of such premises, for one year previous to the fifth of January then next preceding," shall be entitled to be registered, notwithstanding any misnomer or inaccurate or insufficient description of such person. 6th Victoriæ, cap. 18, s. 75.

Compound Householdors.

Where the landlord is rated for the premises occupied, and the name of the tenant is not inserted in the rate book, a demand by the latter to be rated must be made. This applies as well to occupiers of parts of houses, such parts being separate tenements, as to occupiers of houses, the rates of which are compounded for by the landlord.

Payment of the entire amount of rates due by one of several joint occupiers, is a payment by each of his respective rate. Wright v. Town Clerk of Stockport,—Appeal Cases.

Payment of Poor Rates and Assessed Taxes.

On or before the 20th June, the Overseers, in obedience to a precept from the Town Clerk, publish a notice (No. 1, Schedule B), That no person will be entitled to have his name inserted in any list of voters about to be made out by them, in respect of the 10*l.* occupation of premises, unless he shall pay, on or before the TWENTIETH DAY OF JULY, all the poor rates, assessed taxes due from him, in respect of such premises, previously to the FIFTH OF JANUARY last past.

The assessor, or collector of taxes, delivers to the Overseer of each parish, within two days after the Twentieth of July, a list, containing the name and place of abode of every person who had not paid the assessed taxes, which had become payable from him, for the twelve months next before the Fifth of January.

THE LIST OF VOTERS.

The lists of persons entitled to vote are made out by the Overseers and the Town Clerk, the latter preparing the list of freemen, and the former the lists in respect of all other rights of voting.

*List of 10*l.* Rated Occupiers.*

This list is prepared, from the poor-rate book, by the Overseer, according to the "gross estimated rental" of each person rated, from which list are excluded the names of all persons who had not paid the rates and taxes within and up to the period required of them. See Form, No. 2, Schedule B.

List of Voters in respect of Ancient Rights.

In cities and boroughs, where ancient rights of voting are reserved, the Overseers prepare the list of persons entitled to vote, excepting the list of freemen, which is made out by the Town Clerk. See Forms, Nos. 3 and 4, Schedule B.

These lists are published, on the church and chapel doors, on the FIRST OF AUGUST, and copies are kept by the Overseers and Town Clerk for inspection and sale.

Lists of Freemen and Liverymen of the City of London.

The lists of freemen and liverymen of the city of London are made out by the clerks of the livery companies, in pursuance of a precept from the Secondaries, to whom the lists are sent, which, subsequently, are published by them, by fixing one copy of each in the Guildhall, and one in the Royal Exchange.

Claims by Persons omitted.

Every person entitled to be registered, whose name may have been omitted from either of the lists published, or who is desirous of being registered for a different qualification, may make his claim in the form given for that purpose, or to the like effect. See Form No. 5. The notice of claim must be served on the Overseers or Town Clerk according to the list to which the notice refers, on or before the TWENTY FIFTH of August, in the same manner as a county notice of claim.

All claimants will be required to give proof of their right to have their names inserted in the lists, before being admitted to the register by the Revising Barrister.

Objections by Registered Electors.

Any person on the register of voters may object to the name of any voter being retained upon the list of voters, made out and published by the Overseers or the Town Clerk. The notices are to be signed by the objector in full, and given according to the Forms Nos. 8 and 9, or to the like effect. Where there are more than one list published by the Overseers, the notice of objection must specify the particular list in which the person's name objected to is inserted.

The notices must be served on or before the 25th of August, in the same manner as notices of objection in counties.

Publication of Lists of Claimants, and of List of Persons objected to.

The Town Clerks and Overseers make out a list of all persons who have given notice of claim to be inserted in the lists made out by them; and also a list of all persons against whom they have received a proper notice of objection. The forms of these lists will be found in the Schedule B, Nos. 6, 7, 10, and 11 respectively. A copy of these lists, and also of the lists of persons entitled to vote, made out by the Overseers, is delivered by them to the Town Clerk on or before the 29th of August.

The list of claimants and the list of persons objected to, are published in like manner to the lists in counties, on or before the 1st of September, and kept posted on the church and chapel doors during the first fourteen days of September.

REVISION COURT.

The days, times, and places for holding the Court or Courts for the revision of borough lists of voters, are appointed by the Revising Barrister, who receives the several lists from the Town Clerk; and the business of the revision is conducted, with regard to objections, in a similar manner to the revision in counties.

Signing the Lists and Forming the Register.

The Barrister is required to sign each list as its revision is completed, and to deliver all the lists, so signed, to the Town Clerk, who forthwith proceeds to form the new register, in like manner to the formation of the county register by the Clerk of the Peace, except that the register is not necessarily divided according to polling districts. The register, printed and signed by the Town Clerk, is delivered, by the 29th of November, to the Returning Officer, and continues in force for twelve months from the 1st of December.

PROCEEDINGS APPLICABLE TO BOTH COUNTY AND BOROUGH REGISTRATION.

APPEAL FROM THE DECISIONS OF REVISING BARRISTERS UPON POINTS
OF LAW.

On all questions of fact the decision of Revising Barristers is final, but on any point of law material to the result of the case, an Appeal may be had to the Court of Common Pleas, if the Revising Barrister think it reasonable and proper to be entertained. S. 42.

PUBLICATION AND SALE OF LISTS.

Lists and Notices are to be published by being posted on or near the doors of the Church, Chapels, and Town Hall, or other places for posting parochial notices within the parish to which they relate. 6th Victoriae, cap. 18, s. 23. Should the Notices or Lists be torn down or mutilated, they must, as soon as possible, be replaced. Any person wilfully destroying, mutilating, &c. any list or notice, during the period in which it is required to be published, may be brought before a magistrate, and fined not less than 10s. nor more than 40s., the fine to be paid to the person making the complaint. S. 25.

The imperfect publication of any list will not invalidate it, but it is to be revised as though the publication had been complete. s. 26.

Lists are to be kept by the Overseers and Town Clerks for inspection, for fourteen days after publication, between the hours of 10 a.m. and 4 p.m., without making any charge; and for sale to any person at the following scale of charges (S. 5) :—

POST OFFICE SERVICE OF NOTICES.

The following are the special regulations under which notices of claim and objection are served, in accordance with the provisions of the 100th section of the Registration of Voters Act:—

The notice, together with a duplicate thereof, both being signed by the claimant or objector, and agreeing in every particular, duly addressed, on the back, to the party to whom it is to be sent, are taken, open, to the Post Office, where money orders are received or paid, and delivered to the Postmaster with the amount of the ordinary postage payable thereon, together with the fee (Twopence) charged by the Post Office Authorities. The notice and duplicate are then examined by the Postmaster, who, if they be alike in their contents and address, stamps the duplicate, which he returns to the person bringing it, and transmits the original notice by the next post to its destination.

The production of the duplicate, with the dated Post Office stamp, will be evidence before the Revising Barrister of the service of the original; but the notice must be posted so that in due course of Post it would be delivered on or before the last day upon which it is required to be given. S. 100.

FINES UPON OVERSEERS.

The Revising Barrister has power to fine the Overseers for wilful neglect of duty: as, the non-publication of notices, or lists, refusal to attend his Court, or neglect in delivering the lists required of them. The fine is not less than 20s. nor more than £5. S. 51.

EXPENSES OF CLERKS OF THE PEACE, TOWN CLERKS, AND OVERSEERS.

The expenses of the Clerks of the Peace are laid before the Justices of the Peace at the quarter sessions and paid out of the County rate. S. 54. Those of the Town Clerks are rateably defrayed out of the money raised for the relief of the poor of the several parishes and townships within the Borough. S. 55. An account of all expenses incurred by the Overseers is to be laid before the Revising Barrister, and the Barrister is to sign and certify the sum which he shall allow to be due to them in respect of the said expenses; the amount so allowed the Overseers are to receive out of the first monies thereafter to be collected for the relief of the Poor. S. 57.

The aggregate amount of these expenses, and the payments to the Revising Barristers, incurred in forming the Registers for the Counties, Cities and Boroughs in England and Wales is upwards of £.100,000 per annum*.

SALE OF COPIES OF THE REGISTER.

Certified Printed Copies of the Register or parts thereof, are to be kept for sale by the Clerks of the Peace in Counties, and the Town Clerks in Boroughs, at the following scale of charges :

I. ON THE QUALIFICATION OF COUNTY ELECTORS.

Partnership Shares in Freehold.

Several persons joined in a partnership, to carry on trade in a fulling mill. Money was subscribed by all the partners, with part of which freehold land was bought, which was conveyed to trustees; with the other part, a mill was built on this land, and machinery for the mill was purchased. By a partnership deed, executed by the trustees and all the partners, the trusts of the land, mill, &c. were declared to be (among others), that the trustees should stand seised and possessed of all the estates, property, goods, &c. upon trust, for the benefit of themselves and their partners, as part of their partnership joint stock in trade. There was a provision in the deed, that the trustees might borrow money, upon mortgage of the stock, property, estate, &c. belonging to the copartnership; and it was declared that the land, mill, &c. should be deemed and considered as, or in the nature of, personal estate, and not real estate, and be held in trust for the partners, as part of their partnership stock in trade. The trustees had, under the power of the deed, borrowed money, for the purposes of the partnership, for which they had given bonds and notes, in their own names, not having mortgaged any part of the partnership property. Held, That each partner had an interest in realty, and having an amount of shares sufficient for the purpose, was entitled to vote for the county. Held also, That the money, borrowed by the trustees, had not the effect of mortgages on the shares of the partners. BAXTER, Appellant, NEWMAN, Respondent; B. & A. p. 493.—LUT. Vol. I. p. 287.

Shareholders in Incorporated Joint Stock Companies.

Shareholders in Joint Stock Companies incorporated under the Joint Stock Companies' Acts, have no freehold estate, legal or equitable, in any lands held by the Corporation to entitle them to vote in counties. BULMER and NORRIS. K. & G. p. 321.

Individual Corporators.

So also individual corporators of a Corporation at common law which is seised in fee simple of freehold lands, are not entitled to be registered in respect of their interests or shares in the profits of the Company. ACLAND and LEWIS. K. & G. p. 334.

Multiplication of Voices—The Splitting Act.

7th and 8th William III., cap. 25. "All conveyances of any messuages, lands, tenements, or hereditaments, in any county, city, borough, &c. in order to multiply voices, or to split and divide the interest in any houses or lands among several persons, to enable them to vote at elections of Members to serve in Parliament, are hereby declared to be void and of none effect; and that no more than one single voice shall be admitted for one and the same house or tenement."

To render a conveyance void under the above statute, the seller must be party or privy to the illegal object intended by the conveyance. Marshall and Bown. LUT. I. p. 278. B. & A. p. 445.

A bond fide purchase of land, for a valuable consideration, is not void, though the object of the vendees is to multiply voices, and that is known to the agent of the vendor, but not to the vendor himself. Hoyland and Bremner. LUT. I. p. 381. B. & A. p. 611.

A conveyance, made in completion of a bond fide contract of sale, where the money is paid and possession given, there being no secret reservation or trust for the benefit of the vendor, is not within the statute, though the object of both vendor and vendees was the multiplication of voices. Alexander and Newman. LUT. I. p. 404. B. & A. p. 657.

Nor a bond fide conveyance, from father to son, made "in consideration of natural love and affection." Newton and Hargreaves. LUT. I. p. 424. B. & A. p. 690.

Whether there has been fraud in fact in making a conveyance, in order to multiply voices, is a question for the determination of the Revising Barrister. Newton and Overseers of Mobberly. LUT. I. p. 427. B. & A. p. 695.

Freehold presumed from Possession.

Tenements, held by burgage tenure, in the ancient borough of Kendal, it not being shewn that the freehold is in another, entitle the holder in possession to vote for the county. Busher and Thomas. LUT. I. p. 551.

Freeholds for Life,—Charities.

The bedesmen of Lord Burghley's Hospital, Stamford Baron, Northampton, are entitled to be registered, as having equitable estates of freehold in their respective rooms. Simpson and Wilkinson. LUT. I. p. 168. B. & A. p. 308.

The inmates of Jesus Hospital, Rothwell, Northampton, are not entitled to vote for the county, as their respective estates or interests are held during the pleasure of the governors, according to the by-laws, made under the powers of letters patent, dated 38th Elizabeth. Davis and Waddington. LUT. I. p. 159. B. & A. p. 299.

The inmates of Shrewsbury Hospital, Sheffield, are not entitled to be registered for the county of Nottingham, not having equitable estates of sufficient value therein to confer the franchise; and held, by Erle, J., that they have no equitable estate in land, but only an interest in money. Ashmore and Lees. LUT. I. p. 337. B. & A. p. 554.

The "Beadsmen of Daventry" have equitable estates in land, but not to the value of 10*l.* per annum each, and are not entitled to be registered as holding any "benefice or office," within the meaning of the 18 s. of 2nd William IV., cap. 45. K. & G. p. 132.

The fellows of Lincoln College, Oxford, are not entitled to be registered for the county of Durham, inasmuch as the annual value of their equitable estates in land, within that county, is not 10*l.* and they do not come within the exception of the 18 s. of the Reform Act, as coming to an estate by devise, or holding a benefice or office. West and Robson, K. & G. p. 141.

The members of the Hospital of Gilbert, Earl of Shrewsbury, at Sheffield, have neither a legal nor an equitable freehold interest in the rooms occupied by them, and are not entitled to vote for the county. Freeman and Gainsford. K. & G. p. 448.

The preachers and lay clerks and bell ringer of Canterbury Cathedral have not an interest in land to entitle them to vote for the county in respect of their stipend paid out of the Cathedral fund, derived wholly or in part from land. Hall and Lewis. K. & G. p. 499.

Equitable Estate, Cestui que Trust.

A. purchased certain plots of freehold land, of sufficient value to confer the franchise, for which he paid the whole of the purchase money, but the conveyance to him, at his own request, had not been made. The land was unlet, and he had not in any way taken possession, or exercised the rights of ownership upon it. Held, That he was not entitled to be registered, as the cestui que trust "in actual possession, or in receipt of the rents and profits." Anelay and Lewis. K. & G. p. 47.

Dissenting Minister.

The minister of a dissenting congregation occupied a house and garden, the legal estate in fee being vested by deed in trustees, in trust, "to permit the minister, for the time being, to reside in the premises for the time being." The evidence of the minister's appointment was his own statement, that it was general, and for life. Held, That as the Barrister had admitted that evidence, the appointment must be taken to have been made for life, and that the minister had an equitable estate of freehold. Burton and Brooks. LUT. II. p. 197.

In the case of a dissenting minister in the parish of Downton, Wilts, the revising barrister did not infer from similar facts presented, that the appointment was for life, and the Court confirmed his decision, as the facts did not lead necessarily to the inference that the appointment was for life. Collier and King. K. & G. p. 385.

Parish Clerk.

W. M. B. was appointed parish clerk to be held for life, part of the emolument of which office was part of an ancient due upon the opening of every grave in the churchyard of the parish. Held, not to have an interest in the freehold, and that the fee for assisting at funerals is not analogous to those profits that are issuing from the land. Bushell and Eastes. K. & G. p. 484.

Freehold Land Societies,—Mortgagor in Possession.
Value above all Rents and Charges.

Two plots of land were conveyed in fee to W. A. for a consideration of 150*l*. The plots were eligible for building purposes, and would, if let, produce 15*l*. per annum, but for other purposes would not yield 40*s*. per annum. No building had been erected thereon, and the land had remained in the claimant's possession wholly unproductive. It was therefore objected that the claimant had not "free land, to the value of 40*s*. by the year," to expend, within the statute 8th Henry VI. cap. 7. Held, That the annual value of the estate was 40*s*., either by the fact of its purchaseable value being 150*l*. or that it would, if let for its most fitting purpose, yield a rent of 15*l*. Astbury and Henderson. K. & G. p. 6.

Monthly payments to a building society, including principal and interest, secured by mortgage upon the estate, are in the nature of a charge thereon to their full extent, and if they diminish the value to the owner below 40*s*. per annum he is not entitled to be registered. Cope-land and Bartlett. LUT. 2, p. 102.

Land was mortgaged to secure the repayment of a principal sum within a time which had expired at the holding of the revision, but the land was not charged with payment of interest on the loan, though the claimant was personally liable for it. Held, That the claimant did not derive 40*s*. by the year to expend above all charges, and that whether the interest be charged by deed or not, it is a charge upon the estate within the letter and spirit of the 8 Hen. VI. and 28 Geo. III. c. 36. Lee and Hutchinson. LUT. 2, p. 150.

All payments to a building society secured upon an estate, whether they be in respect of principal and interest, or for incidental expenses, are in the nature of charges thereon, and thereby reduce the value to the owner; and although the mortgagor may be in actual possession, and in the receipt of the rents and profits of the estate, he is not entitled to be registered if he do not derive 40*s*. per annum over and above such payments. Beamish and Overseers of Stoke. LUT. 2, p. 189.

Land worth £.5 per annum was mortgaged with other land belonging to the claimant, to secure the repayment of a sum of £.300 and 5 per cent. interest, being £.15 per annum. Held, That the mortgage interest was apportionable, and that the claimant, having an interest above 40*s*. per annum in the land worth £.5, was entitled to vote. Moore and Carsbrooke. LUT. 2, p. 238.

Part of a plot of land subject to a chief rent of £.14 1*s*. 7*d*. was conveyed in fee to ten persons as tenants in common, subject to the payment of £.4 5*s*. as their portion of the chief rent, the grantors covenanting to pay the remainder. Held, That the rent could be apportioned, and that "it is not what charges the land is legally liable to in the first instance, but what, in the result, the claimant to a vote in respect of it would be able to expend." Barrow and Buckmaster. LUT. 2, p. 235.

Where the owner of the freehold pays all the rates and taxes, the gross rent is not the criterion of value to the owner; but the annual amount of such rates and taxes must be deducted, and if it reduces the value to the owner below 40s. he is not entitled to be registered. Moorhouse and Gilbertson. LUT. 2, p. 260.

Where also it was necessary to expend an annual sum in repairs to maintain the gross rent received, Held, That the value was reduced by such annual payment. Hamilton and Bass. LUT. 2, p. 213.

So, also, where it was found that an annual expenditure as commission for collecting the rents was necessary, it was held to be a "charge" reducing the value of the estate to the owners. Sherlock and Steward. K. & G. p. 297.

Freehold land in a Borough occupied by Owner.

Where the owner and occupier of freehold land within a borough also occupies "as tenant" a house therein, he is not disqualified from being registered in respect of the land for the county, though the house be of less than £.10 value. Capell and Overseers of Aston, and Burton and Overseers of Aston. LUT. 2, p. 143.

"Six months' actual possession."

The words "actual possession" mean a possession in fact as contradistinguished to a possession in law; and as the possession in fact of a rent charge, or other incorporeal hereditament, can be had only by the actual manual receipt of the rent itself, or some part of it, or something in lieu of it, so there could be no possession "for six months prior to the 31st of July," where nothing took place but the execution of the deed, and no rent was due until after that date. Murray and Thorniley. LUT. 1, p. 496; B. & A. p. 472; and Hayden and Overseers of Tiverton. LUT. 1, p. 510.

Customary Freehold.

A. had been for upwards of twenty years the owner in fee of a house and land above the annual value of 40s. but less than £.10. The property was situate in the manor of Digwell, at the Court Baron for which the claimant had acknowledged to hold the same house, &c. of the lord of the manor by free deed, fealty, suit of court, &c. and the payment of a yearly rent of 4d. No rent had ever been paid or demanded of him. The lord had by custom a right to compel the tenant to come in and acknowledge free tenure. Held, That the tenant had a freehold estate, and did not hold at the will of the lord or by copy of court roll, consequently, the value of the estate was sufficient to entitle the claimant to be registered. Passingham and Pitty. K. & G. p. 85.

Copyhold in a Borough.

A copyhold house of more than £.10 annual value will not entitle the owner to be registered for the county, though the same be let out in separate tenements each of less than £.10 annual value. Proctor and Annison. K. & G. p. 297.

Leasehold in a Borough.

The lessee of several houses comprised in one lease, the annual value of each house (with one exception) being less than ten pounds, is entitled to be registered for the county, notwithstanding that the occupier of the one house would be entitled to vote for the borough. Webb and Overseers of Aston. LUT. 1. p. 18. B. & A. p. 20.

Occupation "as Tenant."

The Committee to a lunatic's estate in the occupation of certain lands the produce of which he receives for his own use and benefit, but paying no rent for the same, is not entitled to be registered as a £.50 occupying tenant, though his name is returned in the accounts to chancery as the tenant of the land. Burton and Langham. LUT. 2. p. 78.

Occupation at a single rent.

The occupation of land under separate landlords at the respective rents of £.35 and £.20, will not entitle the occupier to be registered as a tenant paying a rent of £.50. Gadsby and Barrow. LUT. 1, p. 142. B. & A. p. 283.

II. ON THE QUALIFICATION OF CITY AND BOROUGH ELECTORS.

Rating and Payment of Rates and Taxes.

Where a rate bears upon its face the name of the occupier, the premises for which he is rated, the rateable value thereof, and the amount of the rate, such rating is sufficient, within the 27th section of the Reform Act; and the payment of the entire rate by any of the parties jointly rated, is a payment by each of the joint occupiers of his respective rate. Wright and The Town Clerk of Stockport. LUT. I. p. 32. B. & A. p. 39.

The occupier of the house, No. 3, Golden Lane, was by mistake rated as the occupier of No. 4. Under an agreement, the landlord of No. 3 paid all rates and taxes, the tenant paying an increased rent in consideration thereof. The landlord had paid all rates and taxes due, and the tenant all rent due. Held, That the tenant had been bond fide called upon to pay the rate, had bond fide paid it, and was rated within the meaning of the statute. Cook and Luckett. LUT. I. p. 432. B. & A. p. 666.

In consequence of a claim to be rated, the name of the occupying tenant of a house, for which the landlord was rated, was inserted in the rate book after the name of the landlord, but nothing appeared annexed thereto in the columns of the rate book. Held, That the tenant was sufficiently rated for the house; and that the question of rating should be determined by inspection of the rate, without any evidence of the intention with which it was made. Pariente and Luckett. LUT. I. p. 441. B. & A. 701.

A claimant, in respect of different premises occupied in immediate succession, is not bound to shew that he has been rated, by name, on the rate book for them, provided he has paid all the rates, to entitle him to vote. Rogers and Lewis. K. & G. p. 279.

A claim to be rated, under the statute 2nd William IV., cap. 45, is only good for the rate for the time being. Wansey and Perkins. LUT. p. 249. B. & A. 402. By the statute 14th and 15th Victoria, cap. 14, however, subsequently passed, persons having once claimed to be rated in respect of premises, and paying or tendering the rates due, are not required to renew such claim.

An officer, in the service of the Government, occupying as such, rent free, a house belonging to the Government, in part remuneration for his services, is a tenant of such house, within the 27th section of the Reform Act; that such a tenant being rated, the rates being paid by the Government in part remuneration for the tenant's services, was liable for the rates, and that the payment was made on his account. Hughes and The Overseers of Chatham. LUT. I. p. 51. B. & A. p. 61.

Where no actual tender of rates due took place, at the time of giving a notice of claim to be rated, but the claimant asked "if there were any rates due?" and said, "if so, he was prepared to pay them," the Overseer replying, "I will see to it,"—Held, This was not a tender within the meaning of the statute. Bishop and Smedley. LUT. I. p. 384.

All taxes due, whether previously demanded or not, must be paid, to be entitled to be registered. Ford and Smedley. LUT. II. p. 403.

Occupation "as Tenant," or "as Owner."

An officer, in the service of the Government, occupying, as such, a house, rent free, in part remuneration for his services, is a tenant of such house. Hughes and The Overseers of Chatham. LUT. I. p. 51. B. & A. 61.

The Surgeon of Greenwich Hospital is not entitled to be registered, in respect of the occupation of the apartments assigned to him, either as owner or tenant. Dobson and Jones. LUT. I. p. 105. B. & A. 243.

Nor are the Military Knights of Windsor, in respect of their residences. Heartley and Banks, K. G. p. 219.

Nor the Brethren of Leicester Hospital, in respect of their chambers. Heath and Haynes. K. & G. p. 99.

The lay clerks of Windsor have not the right of voting upon the facts stated in the case, as they do not shew an occupation either as owners or as tenants of the houses they have the option of occupying under their appointments. Bridgewater and Durrant. K. & G. p. 377.

If the occupation is as servant, it is not an occupation as tenant, though rent be paid. The hall-keeper of the Guildhall of B. is a servant of the Corporation, occupying premises belonging to the Corporation, for which he pays no rent, but pays the rates and taxes, residence being necessary to the discharge of his duties. Held, That he did not occupy as tenant. Clarke and The Overseers of St. Mary, Bury St. Edmunds. K. & G. p. 90.

Six persons, members of a political association, were joint lessees of a house, for which they alone were liable for the rent. There was no mention in the lease of the purposes for which the premises were to be used, but they were used by all the members of the Association, and the rent and servants' wages were paid out of its common funds. Held, That the lessees occupied the premises as tenants, and that the other members of the association were not in joint occupation of the premises. Luckett and Bright. LUT. I. p. 456. B. & A. p. 737.

A. being the lessee of a house and mill, took into partnership three persons, all of whom resided with A. upon the premises. Each paid one fourth of the expenses, and received one fourth of the profits, the rent to the lessor being paid out of the partnership funds. Held, That each was entitled to be registered in respect of the occupation, as tenant, of one undivided fourth part of the premises. Rogers and Harvey. K. & G. p. 169.

Compound Householders.—Lodger or Tenant.

Claimant occupied two floors in a house, in which the landlord occupied the shop and first floor, where he resided with his family. The claimant had exclusive control over his apartments, and had also a latch key of the street door, to which there was another lock, of which he had no key. Held, That he did not occupy as tenant, but had only a limited enjoyment as a lodger. Pitts and Smedley. LUT. I. p. 196. B. & A. p. 344.

J. H. occupied the whole of the second floor of a house, in which his landlord resided, both having a key of the outer door, which was kept closed. Held, That J. H. did not occupy as tenant. Wansey and Perkins. LUT. I. p. 252. B. & A. p. 409.

Appellant occupied a counting-house in a house, in which the landlord and six other persons occupied counting-houses. The landlord's clerk resided on the premises, who, at night, kept the outer gate to the premises closed, he alone having the keys, but it was his duty to open the gate to any of the occupiers, when required. Held, That appellant occupied as tenant, and was entitled to be registered. Downing and Luckett. LUT. II. p. 33.

G. B. had the separate and exclusive occupation of apartments in a house, of which apartments he had the key, and also a separate key, for his own use, of the outer door, the landlord not residing in the house, nor occupying any part of it. Held, That he occupied as tenant. Score and Huggett. LUT. I. p. 198. B. & A. p. 355.

The claimant occupied, at 5s. 6d. per week, two rooms in a house, in which the landlord also occupied a shop and parlour. The landlord did not sleep in the house. Each had a key to the outer door, which had no other fastening than the lock. Held, That the claimant occupied a "building," as "tenant." Toms and Luckett. LUT. II. p. 19.

Holding under the same Landlord.

The landlord of premises, demised from year to year to the claimant, during the demise, and before the 31st of July, sells a part of them to a third person. This does not destroy the claimant's right to vote, as holding under the same landlord during the period required. Smerdon and Tucker. K. & G. p. 305.

Meaning of "Other Building."

A room in a factory, being a distinct and separate portion thereof, is "a building," within the meaning of the statute 2nd William IV., cap. 45. Wright and The Town Clerk of Stockport. LUT. I. p. 32. B. & A. p. 39. So, also, two rooms in a house, over which the occupier had exclusive control. Toms and Luckett. LUT. II. p. 19.

A cowhouse, substantially built of stone, with a tiled roof, having a door, with lock and key, and suitable for the purposes for which it is used, is a building within the meaning of the words, "other building." Whitmore and Town Clerk of Wenlock. LUT. I. p. 10.

A building, containing a ground floor used as a cow-house, and an upper chamber, having a fire-place and a window, furnished with a bed and chairs where a party resided and slept, is a "house" within the statute. Nunn and Denton. LUT. I. p. 178. B. & A. p. 324.

A shed, standing against the wooden paling of a wharf, but not fastened thereto, having a tarpauling roof supported by six posts put into the ground, and one of its sides boarded up, used for putting barrows, hoops, &c. into, is a "building." Watson and Cotton. LUT. 2. p. 58.

A claimant cannot join together two separate buildings, in order to make up the value required to confer a vote for a city or borough under the 27th section of the Reform Act. Dewhurst and Fielden. LUT. 1, p. 274. B. & A. p. 439.

A house and shop, not within the same curtilage, cannot be joined together so as to make one entire qualification. Powell and Price. LUT. 1, p. 586.

A two-stalled stable with hay-loft over, annexed to which but at a lower elevation, is another brick building, to which again is annexed a wooden building divided into three compartments, all which, and the two brick buildings, open into the same yard, form one continuous structure under the same roof, and, therefore, constitute a "building." Pownall and Dawson. LUT. 2, p. 177. See also Jolliffe and Rice. LUT. 2, p. 90.

Part of a house without any actual severance used and occupied as a residence does not confer a title to vote, as the subject of the occupation is not "a house," but only "part of a house." Cook and Humber. K. & G. p. 413, and Wilson and Roberts, K. & G. p. 340.

Building, and Land occupied "therewith."

"Therewith" refers to time and not to locality. Consequently, land at a distance from a building, if both be occupied during the qualifying period, by the same person as owner, or as tenant under the same landlord, may be valued with the building for the purpose of making up a borough qualification. Collins and Tewkesbury. LUT. 2, p. 217.

"Clear yearly value."

Whether premises are of the "clear yearly value of £.10" is a question of fact for the determination of the Revising Barrister. Per Erle, J. the fair principle in ascertaining the value is to inquire what the premises would let for to a tenant, and deduct therefrom what a tenant would ordinarily have to pay. Coogan and Luckett. LUT. 1, p. 447. B. & A. p. 716.

The fair annual rent of premises is the proper criterion of their "clear yearly value," without making any deductions for landlord's repairs or insurance. Colville and Wood. LUT. 1, p. 488. B. & A. p. 721.

Residing within seven miles.

A freeman resided with his wife and family, and carried on business at Gloucester, more than seven miles from Tewkesbury, but in order to obtain a vote for the borough, he paid 9d. per week for the use of a furnished bedroom and a closet at a friend's house at Tewkesbury. He had the key between January and July, during which time he slept in the bedroom twelve times, and in the course of the year between fifteen and twenty times, but he never took his meals in the house, except as a guest. Held, That he had not resided in Tewkesbury within the meaning of the statute. Whithorn and Thomas. LUT. 1, p. 125. B. & A. p. 259.

Place of abode no part of qualification.

The place of abode of a voter is no part of his qualification. Per Maule, J.—Luckett and Knowles. LUT. 1, p. 451. B. & A. 370.

Parochial Relief.

A Freeman excused from payment of poor rate on the ground of poverty, is not disqualified as having received parochial relief or alms, within the meaning of the 36th section of the Reform Act. Mashiter and Town Clerk of Lancaster. LUT. 2, p. 118.

M. S., on the list of voters for the borough of Northallerton, was called upon to shew cause before the Board of Guardians why he should not be ordered to maintain his father, a pauper in the workhouse, and he arranged to contribute 1s. 6d. per week towards his support, the parish bearing what other cost was entailed. Objected, that, as the son was legally bound to maintain his father, the cost borne by the parish was "parochial relief" to the son. The Revising Barrister held that the voter was not disqualified by the provisions of the 36th section of the Reform Act, and the Court confirmed the decision, without argument.—Trotter and Trevor. K. & G. p. 531.

Freemen and Liverymen of London.

Freemen and Liverymen of the City of London admitted to their freedom by purchase since the 1st of March, 1831, are entitled to be registered, notwithstanding the proviso in the 32nd section of the Reform Act, which applies only to Burgesses or Freemen in other cities or boroughs. Croucher and Browne. LUT. 1, p. 388. B. & A. p. 621.

Voters in respect of reserved rights of voting.

To entitle a person to vote as an inhabitant householder, potwaller, or scot and lot voter under the Reform Act, he must retain the identical qualification which he had when that statute passed. Jeffrey and Kitchener. LUT. 1, p. 210. B. & A. p. 359.

III. ON THE REGISTRATION OF ELECTORS.

Disqualification of Letter Carriers.

A post-office letter carrier, who has resigned his situation within twelve months only of the 31st of July of the year in which his claim is made, is not entitled to be registered. Cooper and Harris. LUT. p. 207. B. & A. p. 357.

Extra Tide Waiter.

An extra or glud tide waiter, appointed for occasional duty by the collector of customs under the authority of the board, comes within the incapacitating clause of the 22nd Geo. III., cap. 41, as being an officer, or person concerned or employed in collecting or managing the customs. Pownall and Hood. LUT. II. p. 171.

Notice of Claim,—Signature of Claimant.

A notice of claim need not necessarily bear the personal signature of the claimant, if it be signed in his name; and should the Overseers accept the notice, by publishing the name in the list of claimants, no objection can be raised before the Revising Barrister as to the validity of the notice. Davis and Hopkins. K. & G. p. 118.

Signature of Overseers to Lists.

A list duly made by the Overseers and delivered to the Revising Barrister, but not signed by all, or a majority, of the Overseers, is not invalidated by such want of signature. Morgan and Parry. K. & G. p. 57.

Voter's description in Lists.

A qualification in respect of the fifty-first part of a fee-farm rent is sufficiently described in the third column by the words "freehold fee farm." Cooper and Ashfield. K. & G. p. 200.

Whether the description of a qualification in the register is sufficient for the purpose of being identified, is a question of fact for the determination of the Revising Barrister, and his decision thereon conclusive.

Wood and Overseers of Willesden. LUT. I. p. 314. B. & A. p. 527.

A claimant, having no fixed place of abode, and for several years having been travelling abroad, stated his "place of abode" as "travelling abroad." Held sufficient. Walker and Payne. LUT. I. p. 324. B. & A. p. 541.

The place of abode of a voter is no part of his qualification, and can be amended by the Revising Barrister under the 40th section of the Registration Act. Borough Case. Lockett and Knowles. LUT. I. p. 451. B. & A. p. 730.

The nature of a qualification described as "£.50 occupier," should have been corrected by the Revising Barrister to "farm as occupier," and the claimant's name not expunged from the list. Howitt and Stephens. K. & G. p. 183.

The qualification of W. B., the occupier of a farm for which he was liable to a rent of £.50, was described in the register as "tenant" only. Held, that the Revising Barrister had power to correct the description, as the word "tenant" sufficiently pointed out the class of qualification intended. Birks and Allison. K. & G. 507.

The word "or," in the heading to the fourth column of a notice of claim is disjunctive, and creates three different descriptions; in giving the situation of a qualifying property it is sufficient that it be brought within any one of them, viz. "If the house is situate in a street, lane, or other like place, the street or lane should be mentioned, and if the houses are numbered, the number also should be given; but that if the house and premises are not in a street or lane, or other like place, but in a road, or on a common, or the like, then the name of the property should be given, if known by any, or the name of the occupying tenant." Eckersley and Barker. LUT. I. p. 190. B. & A. p. 334.

A county voter whose right to vote depends upon the successive occupation of land, must send in a new claim describing the lands occupied in immediate succession. A. was described on the register as the "occupier of land above £.50,"—"own occupation;" within the qualifying period he changed his occupation for other land within the same parish: Held, That he did not retain the same qualification. Burton and Grey. LUT. II. p. 4.

When the qualification is in respect of the occupation of two houses in immediate succession, the situation of both must be set forth in the list. The Barrister cannot supply an omission herein under the 40th section. Bartlett and Gibbs. LUT. I. p. 73. B. & A. p. 98; and Onions and Bowdler. LUT. II. p. 59.

If the houses occupied in immediate succession be numbered the numbers must be given. Per Erle, J. That if the numbers had been supplied the Barrister ought to have inserted them. Flounders and Donner. LUT. I. p. 365.

Where a borough qualification was in respect of the occupation of two houses in succession, and described in the third column as "house," the situation of both the houses being given in the fourth, it was held to be a sufficient description, or, at all events, one that the Revising Barrister could correct to "houses occupied in immediate succession." Hitchins and Brown. LUT. I. p. 328. B. & A. p. 545.

In stating the nature of a voter's qualification in a city or borough, when the right of voting depends on property, it is only necessary to describe the property which gives the qualification, and not its incidents. Where, therefore, a party occupied a house and shop, jointly with another person, Held, That it was not necessary to state the fact of the joint occupation. Daniel and Camplin. LUT. I. p. 264. B. & A. 425.

A building, calculated for and once used as a dwelling-house, occupied by a tenant partly for warehousing goods, partly as a sale room, and the up-stairs apartments being used as workshops, is properly described as a "house" Daniel and Coulsting. LUT. I. p. 230. B. & A. 380.

"Part of a house," is a sufficient description of the nature of qualification of a borough voter, claiming in respect of the occupation of a portion of a house. Judson and Luckett. LUT. I. p. 490. B. & A. p. 707. See Cook and Humber. K. & G. p. 413.

Service of Notice of Claim on the Overseers of a District.

The parish of St. M. was divided into four districts, popularly, but improperly, called "townships," each district having an Overseer, who made out a separate list of voters. A Notice of Claim was directed "to the Overseers of the Township of S. S." Held sufficient, and that service upon one overseer was service upon all the overseers of the parish of St. M. Elliott and The Overseers of St. Mary Within. LUT. I. p. 573.

Service of Notice of Claim on Sunday.

If the 20th of July falls upon a Sunday, service on that day of a Notice of Claim is sufficient. Rawlins and The Overseers of West Derby. LUT. I. p. 373. B. & A. 599.

REGISTER OF VOTERS.

The signed lists delivered by the Clerk of the Peace to the Sheriff are the true "Register of Voters," and lists sold by the Clerk of the Peace, purporting to be copies of the register, are not necessarily copies "of the register in force." Therefore, where the name of an elector who had signed notices of objection did not appear upon the latter but was upon the former, such notices were good. BRUMFITT and BREMNER. K. & G. p. 352.

NOTICE OF OBJECTION. Form of.

A notice in the following form is a sufficient notice to a person that his vote for the County would be objected to:—"Take notice, that I object to your name being retained on the list of voters for the parish of St. Thomas, New Sarum, in the Southern Division of the County of Wilts." Lambert and The Overseers of St. Thomas, New Sarum. LUT. II. p. 222.

Specification of List to which Objection refers.

Where in cities and boroughs the Overseers make out two lists of voters, a notice of objection to the Overseers must specify the particular list to which it refers, even when the name of the party objected to appears on one list only. Barton and Ashley. LUT. I. p. 304. B. & A. p. 518.

The note at the foot of the Form, No. 8, Schedule B, applies only where the Overseers make out two lists, and does not apply to Form No. 9. (Forms Nos. 8 & 9, p. 209.) Therefore, in the City of London, where the Overseers make out one list of voters, and other lists are formed and published, it is not necessary to specify the list to which a notice of objection refers, either to the Overseers or to the party objected to. Wansey and Perkins (Quigley's case). LUT. I. p. 235. B. & A. p. 386.

Where the Overseers make out two lists, one of 10*l.* rated occupiers, the other of potwallers, a notice of objection in the following form was held sufficient:—"I object to your name being retained on the list of persons entitled to vote as householders in the election," &c. Allen and House. LUT. I. p. 257. B. & A. p. 415.

When a voter's name is on the 10*l.* rated occupiers' list only, in a city or borough, a notice of objection sufficiently specifies the list by the description, "On the list of persons entitled, under the Reform Act, to vote," &c. Huggett and Lewis. K. & G. p. 1.

Voter's description in Notice of Objection.

A county voter, whose name was inserted in the list for the parish of Pudsey, described his place of abode as of "Lidget Hill" only, and was so described in a notice of objection: Held, A good notice. Flint and Sharp. K. & G. p. 13.

Date of Notice of Objection.

Notice of objection to the Overseers and to the party objected to, must state the year of our Lord. Beenlen and Hockin. LUT. I. p. 526.

Signature of Objector.

An original notice of objection must be signed by the objector himself; and so, likewise, must the duplicate, if the notice be served by post, under the 100 s. of the Registration Act. Toms and Cuming. LUT. I. p. 200. B. & A. p. 347.

To prove that the original duplicate notice sent by the post was signed by the hand of the objector, it is sufficient to shew that the stamped duplicate notice was so signed by him. Lewis and Roberts. K. & G. p. 402.

An objector, described upon the register as "William Nickless," signed his notice of objection in his proper name, "William Nicholas"—Held, A sufficient notice, and that the description was such a misnomer as to be commonly understood. Hinton and Hinton. LUT. I. p. 259. B. & A. p. 421.

Notices of objection were signed by an objector with his usual signature, but the surname was so illegibly written, that an ordinary person unacquainted with the signature could not, by perusing it with ordinary diligence and skill, arrive at any reasonable conclusion what name it was intended to designate. By comparison of the notice, however, with the entry in the register it could be easily understood. Hallam's case. The same, where the post office stamped duplicate only was produced. Aylan's case. Held that the signature was sufficient. Trotter and Walker. K. & G. p. 534.

Objector's description in Notice.

The place of abode of an objector, as described on the register, was "Cheltenham" only, while that given in his notice of objection was there is not any distinction to be taken between a notice of objection and a notice of claim. Bayley and the Overseers of Nantwich. LUT. I. p. 363. B. & A. p. 642.

Notices of objection to the Overseers were proved to have been enclosed in an envelope addressed "to the Overseers" of the proper parish, and sent by ordinary post according to s. 101 Registration Act, and were duly received and published. Held to be a sufficient proof of service by post, and that the service of notices by post upon Overseers need not be according to the statutory provisions of s. 100. Smith and Huggett, and Smith and James. K. & G. p. 484.

The production of a duplicate notice of objection, bearing the Post Office dated stamp, is in all cases of notices served through the post, conclusive proof of the service on the voter in the ordinary course of post. Hornsby and Robson. K. & G. p. 66.

A notice of objection was posted on Saturday, the 23rd of August, and delivered in due course of post, on Sunday, the 24th: Held, Sufficient service, and not within the statute 29 Charles II., cap. 7. Colville and Lewis. LUT. I. p. 380. B. & A. p. 608.

Production of the stamped duplicate notice of objection by the objector, and not "by the party who posted such notice," is sufficient proof; and that, as the whole faith and credit is attached to the stamp of the postmaster, the production of the duplicate may be either by the objector, or by an agent who posted the notice. Cuming and Toms. LUT. I. p. 151. B. & A. p. 229.

DESCENT

OF THE

ROYAL FAMILY OF GREAT BRITAIN.

THE illustrious HOUSE of BRUNSWICK traces its origin to a very remote antiquity, in the several lines of Este, of the Guelphs, of Billing, and Whitekind the Great; all of which became united in the person of Henry Leo.

The descent of the BRITISH LINE, both through Henry I. and James I., ascends higher than almost any line in Europe, as it may be traced back to about 560.

John, the second son of Henry II., was crowned in 1199, and died in 1216; he was succeeded by his son Henry III., who died in 1272, and was succeeded by his son Edward I., who died in 1307. At his death Edward II. ascended the throne, and was succeeded by Edward III., whose eldest son Edward the Black Prince, dying before his father, in 1376, he was succeeded in 1377, by his grandson, Richard II., who was deposed in 1399, and succeeded by his cousin Henry IV., who died in 1412, when his son, Henry V., ascended the throne, and died in 1422. That monarch was succeeded by his son, Henry VI., who was deposed in 1461, when Edward IV. (descended from the third son of Edward III.) mounted the throne, and died in 1483. The short usurpation of Richard III. was followed by the accession of Henry VII., descended from John of Gaunt, Duke of Lancaster, fourth son of Edward III. On his marriage with Elizabeth, daughter of Edward IV., the family was again united. Henry VII. dying in 1509, left three children, a son and two daughters, the youngest of whom married James IV. King of Scotland, who was, in 1513, succeeded in that kingdom by his son James V., whose daughter, Mary, was mother of James VI. of Scotland, and the first of that name in England; his daughter, Sophia, married Frederick, King of Bohemia, by whom she had a daughter, Elizabeth, married to Ernestus, Elector of Hanover, Representative of the Houses of Brunswick, Hanover, Lunenburg, Wolfenbittel, Zell, &c., by whom she had a son, George, who, according to the provisions made by Parliament, for the succession of the Crown in the Protestant line, on the death of Queen Anne, August 1, 1714, ascended the throne of Great Britain.

His Majesty married, Nov. 21, 1682, Sophia-Dorothy, only child of his uncle, George-William, Duke of Zell; by whom he had issue George-Augustus, his successor; and Sophia-Dorothy, who married, Nov. 28, 1706, Frederick-William, afterwards King of Prussia. His Majesty died at Osnaburg, June 11, 1727, on his journey to his German dominions, in the 68th year of his age, and the 13th of his British reign.
